President Is Back on Duty; Physical Examination Due

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — President Kennedy goes back to work on the nation's business today while keeping a careful watch on the condition of his seriously ill father.

The President himself is getting a physical examination.

Dr. Preston Wade, New York specialist, is due here during the day for a weekend checkup of the president's back.

In announcing that Wade would examine the President with the regular White House physician, Dr. Janet Travell, press secretary Pierre Salinger emphasized that Kennedy has experienced no recent trouble with his back.

The President's brother, Edward M. Kennedy, visited his father, Joseph P. Kennedy, at St. Mary's Hospital this morning. He told newsmen his father appeared to be "about the same."

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger added to this report later by saying there was no change in Joseph Kennedy's condition. Fever, caused by the mild case of pneumonia, has virtually subsided, and the elder Kennedy's temperature is now "very near normal," Salinger said.

Dr. Wade plans to see the President at about 1:30 p.m.

Maj. Gen. Chester V. Clifton gave the President his daily intelligence briefing.

Due from Washington are three presidential advisers to work with Kennedy on the forthcoming State of the Union message.

Kennedy is getting ready for what Salinger called "a last look at the budget" for the 1963 fiscal year, which starts July 1.

Despite their anxiety over the condition of Joseph P. Kennedy, President and Mrs. Kennedy made Christmas as merry as possible for their two children.

All were up early in the ocean-front mansion of Col. and Mrs. C. Michael Paul, where they are spending the holidays, to watch Caroline, 4, open her presents beneath a tall Christmas tree. John Jr., 1, watched his delighted sister.

The President and First Lady then drove to the small white chapel at St. Mary's Hospital in West Palm Beach to attend 10 o'clock Mass.

They spent 50 minutes with the President's father, who is battling against pneumonia as well as the after-effects of a stroke he suffered a week ago today.

They returned for another 35-minute visit Monday night.

The President and First Lady seemed to be much more relaxed than on other recent visits to the hospital.

Just before the President and his wife arrived, his mother, Rose Kennedy, accompanied by her youngest son, Edward M. (Ted) Kennedy, left the hospital by a side entrance.

Dr. Walter Newbern, vascular surgeon who operated on the elder Kennedy Sunday to relieve congestion on the chest and throat, reported the former ambassador to Britain was better Monday.

Salinger said the elder Kennedy's condition remains serious, but that he recognized members of his family who visited him during the morning and seemed to respond well to their visit.

The fever from the pneumonia was reported to have gone down. This is regarded as a favorable sign by doctors. However, it is understood there has been no apparent improvement in the partial paralysis which followed the stroke.

Papal Bull Formally Signals Ecumenical Council for '62

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope John XXIII issued a papal bull Monday formally convoking an ecumenical council of the Roman Catholic Church next year. It will deal with internal affairs of the church, advance the cause of Christian unity and consider the problems besetting modern man.

The Pope did not set the exact date for some 3,000 Catholic leaders to gather in St. Peter's Basilica. The worldwide council is expected to open late in 1962.

The internal administration of the church and paths toward Christian unity—two problems that have been major concerns of Pope John since his election in 1958—will be major topics at the council.

The Pope, expressing grave concern over "militant atheism, operating on a world plan," said the council "could not ignore the problems and troubles" of the world.

"While humanity is on the verge of a new era," the papal bull continued, "the church faces tasks of immense gravity and breadth as in the most tragic epochs of her history."

"They concern, in fact, the need of bringing the vivifying and perennial energies of the Gospel to the modern world—a world that exalts itself in its conquests in the technical and scientific fields."

The ecumenical council, known as Vatican II, will be the 21st in the history of the church. Many of its predecessors have issued historic decisions. The first, in 325, set the date for Easter. The 19th lasted 18 years—from 1545 to 1563—and condemned the beliefs of Martin Luther.

The last council, known as Vatican I and called in 1869, proclaimed the infallibility of Roman pontiffs when teaching in their full authority on matters of faith and morals.

From the Protestant viewpoint, the concept of papal infallibility has provided one of the most important theological barriers to closer ties with the church of Rome.

But the Pope made clear that in his drive for Christian unity he hoped for a return of "the separated brothers... in unity and peace" to the Roman Catholic fold and not toward a confederation of churches with shared authority.

Plane Landing In Georgia Not Confirmed

SUMMERVILLE, Ga. (AP)—A Civil Defense official checked baffling and somewhat contradictory reports today that an Ohio doctor and three members of his family were forced to land their small private plane in a cotton patch.

A mysterious radio message Monday night said a Springfield, Ohio, doctor, his wife and two children were safe, were building a bonfire to keep warm and expected to walk out at daylight.

The radio message, however, was on a so-called citizens band—a frequency which the Civil Air Patrol in Atlanta said is "not an aircraft frequency and is not one that anyone in distress would use."

The consensus among rescue officials was that the message was a hoax, similar to a phony call picked up some time ago in this area.

G. B. White, area state forester and assistant CD director, went aloft early in the day to check out the report. An hour and a half of searching brought no results.

Lt. Col. Kip Moulton, CAP information officer in Atlanta, said the original radio report had so many earmarks of a hoax that the CAP did not immediately feel called upon to join the search.

An Ohio physician with the same name given in the citizens band radio call told newsmen he never owned a plane nor has a family of the size described. No confirmation of the forced landing could be found in Ohio.

Bomb Kills Worshippers In Colombia

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP)—At least 50 worshippers were killed in a Christmas Eve outbreak of Colombia's persistent banditry and terrorism when a bomb exploded in the midst of a religious procession. Eighty persons were reported under arrest in the hunt for the terrorists.

The explosion occurred in the square of an artillery battalion barracks in the west Colombian city of Buga, 300 miles southwest of Bogota.

A communique placed the death toll at 50. Reports from the scene said 51 were killed and more than 100 injured.

The bomb went off as a procession of worshippers bearing a figure of the Christ child passed through the square to place the figure in a manger. A woman said she saw a man carrying a bundle through the crowd and he was one of the victims.

A flying piece of debris killed one man in a car. One report said the victims were injured by nails and other metal fragments.

The infirmary, the officer's club and other installations were badly damaged.

Gen. Alberto Ruiz Novoa, Colombian armed forces commander, said terrorists planned the bombing to gain entry to the barracks. It was believed they planned to steal arms and ammunition.

The national government in Bogota ordered the Red Cross to mobilize a disaster force for Buga. A private relief fund was started for the victims. The injured were taken to neighboring towns and urgent appeals were issued for blood donors.

Plane Is Searched After Bomb Report

BALTIMORE (AP)—An Eastern Air Lines passenger plane left Friendship International Airport today after a search disclosed rumors of a bomb aboard the aircraft.

The 66 passengers disembarked as airport police searched the plane, which was grounded here for about two hours.

Chief agent J. E. Baker said the tip was received from the airline's Washington office. He said the plane was bound from Syracuse, N.Y., to Nashville, Tenn.

Chipped Ice Makes White Christmas

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—Two New Orleans youngsters had a white Christmas even though the temperature climbed into the 50s.

William Nungesser, who owns and operates a seafood cannery, spread six tons of chipped ice on his front lawn Sunday night and added another four tons Christmas morning.

His children, Nancy, 4, and Billy, 2, built a four-foot snowman, and until the sun melted it, enjoyed the white Christmas for which they had wished.

Special Warmth of Christmas Still Lingers Across Nation

By PIERCE LEHMBECK
Associated Press Staff Writer

A special Christmas warmth lingered across the continent today. It burned in the eyes of children of misfortune remembered by the fortunate, in the minds of troubled adults touched by the kindness of neighbors, and in the hearts of the charitable who experienced again the blessedness of giving.

Examples? They were nigh as countless as the strands in the beard of that ageless North Pole resident who circled the earth in the pre-dawn hours Monday.

Freddie Downer, 7, was killed by a car early this month as he crossed a street in Massena, N.Y., to telephone Santa Claus and remind him of an important letter he had written.

"Even if you have to leave me out, Santa," the boy wrote, "please don't forget my sister."

Three-year old Vicky was not forgotten.

Through the magic that is St. Nick's way of doing things, gifts and money for more gifts turned morning.

In Bloomfield, Conn., friends of the 11 children of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Cahill went caroling to gather donations for the Cahills, who were made homeless by a fire two nights before Christmas.

Louisa Cahill, 7, was critically burned.

Bloomfield and other communities responded with fund drives, gifts and clothing.

Fires Saturday night destroyed the homes of the James Sanders and Clarence Lofton families in Nashville. Both Negro families lost all their possessions, including the Christmas presents.

But the word spread, and by Christmas morn they had received money, food, clothing and promises of furniture.

At New Cumberland, Pa., near Harrisburg, a fire two weeks ago left Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Jones and their seven children without home, clothing or personal possessions.

The Fairview Fire Co., its Indies auxiliary, the Fairview Lions' club and others in the community pooled their compassion.

The Jones had a partially completed house which they planned to occupy in about six months. Local merchants contributed insulation, plumbing, heating, electrical wire and flooring.

The ladies auxiliary purchased new Christmas gifts.

Forty men got together Dec. 17 and started work on the house.

On Christmas morning the Jones were in their new home. They had a tree laden with toys delivered by a Santa Claus Helper Christmas Eve.

Silas Brown, who worked on shrimp boats in Florida, went to Texas to seek a trucking job. He arrived in Galveston with his wife and seven children—and $2.

Police found the family on Christmas Eve under a causeway, where they had gone for shelter.

"I knew these people in Galveston had suffered from the hurricane and I didn't want to push in on them," Brown explained.

Police arranged for a free meal, then clothing, free lodging through the holidays, more than $200 in cash, toys, a turkey dinner—and perhaps most important, a job offer.

"It kind of reaffirms your faith," said Brown.

In Springfield, Mo., a man went in the Salvation Army Christmas morning and asked how much the organization needed to meet its goal for its Christmas fund for needy families.

"$991," he was advised.

The caller, who asked that his name not be revealed, sent a check for the $991.

Highway Fatality Count Hits 521

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Traffic 521
Fires 83
Miscellaneous 85
Total 689

Christmas holiday traffic deaths soared past the 500 estimate of the National Safety Council to a six-year record Monday night.

The latest count of the three-day Yuletide period from 6 p.m. local time, Friday to midnight Monday was 521. Fires took 83 other lives and 85 persons died in miscellaneous mishaps. The overall total of violent deaths was 689. The council increased its estimate to 550 or more midway through the holiday period.

The toll ran considerably higher than did the results of a 78-hour, nonholiday weekend survey conducted by The Associated Press. In the period from 6 p.m. Friday, Dec. 8, to midnight, Dec. 11, 347 persons were killed in traffic accidents, 42 died in fires and 57 were killed in miscellaneous accidents for a total of 446.

Among the worst highway accidents was a two-car collision near Hearne, Tex., in which five persons were killed and two others injured.

Two couples were killed and five girls, aged 3 to 15, were orphaned when a station wagon and an automobile collided near Warren, Pa.

In Marietta, Ohio, a car carrying a group of young carolers, and a truck collided, killing two boys and the father of one of the youths. The mother, following in another car, watched the tragedy.

Fires added to the grim holiday toll. In Groton, N. Y., three of a widow's five children and a farm laborer perished in a fire which destroyed a two-story frame building. A father and his twin 5-year-old stepdaughters died in flames which swept their home in Nankin Township near Detroit.

Two Injured In 4-Car Crash

A four-car accident, which occurred at 3:25 a. m. Sunday two miles south of Harrisburg on Route 62, sent two persons to Mt. Carmel Hospital, Columbus.

State Patrolmen reported that the accident, along with several other "fender benders," came as a direct result of the slippery snow covered highways Saturday and Sunday.

According to Patrolmen the accident occurred when a southbound auto driven by Abraham m Robinson, 32, Cleveland, skidded into the rear of Mrs. Kidwell's vehicle, which had slowed down for a snow plow.

THE IMPACT forced Mrs. Kidwell's auto into the northbound lane of traffic and was hit head-on by McGinn's auto. Mrs. Kidwell's vehicle was struck in the rear by a fourth vehicle driven by Fred W. Sims Jr., 22, Columbus.

State Patrolmen said that all four autos involved were heavily damaged.

Robinson was cited to appear in Circleville Municipal Court for failing to provide the assured clear distance ahead.

Welfare Unit Chief Visits Here Today

Several potential distribution centers for the Pickaway County Welfare Department's contemplated surplus commodities program were to be inspected this afternoon by Robert F. McGonagle, chief of the state welfare department's division of commodities distribution.

Miss Pauline Reese, local welfare director, said McGonagle's visit had been scheduled since the county commissioners have expressed an interest in moving ahead as quickly as possible with the program to distribute foods to relief recipients from surplus government supplies.

One possible location for the operation is a building at the county Fairgrounds on Route 22 near the city corporation limit.

Cold Hits Europe

LONDON (AP)—Winter held an icy grip on most of Europe today. The cold extended from Scandinavia to northern Italy, and temperatures dropped below freezing in London. Around Paris temperatures were at freezing levels. In Berlin, the mercury dropped to 4 below.

JFK Acclaims Berlin Freedom

Concern Is Expressed Over Trouble Spots

Leaders of the Western world appealed for peace and unity in Christmas messages Monday while expressing grave concern over differences dividing major powers and flareups troubling lesser ones.

President Kennedy assured West Berliners in a taped television broadcast that the beacon of free Berlin "will continue to shine brightly for many years to come."

"We are at your side — as before," Kennedy declared "We shall stay. Until truly there is good will among men, not walls to divide them, our pursuit of peace shall continue."

West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt cabled Kennedy his appreciation, asserting that "Berliners will take upon themselves new burdens rather than to forsake convictions and principles which free men all over the world are willing to defend."

Churches were filled to capacity in both East and West Berlin. The grim concrete and barbed wire wall the Communists threw up to divide the city was softened a bit by the first Christmas snow in five years. Some 800 lighted Christmas trees twinkled along the Western side of the wall to remind the East Berliners they were not forgotten.

Queen Elizabeth II said in a broadcast to the nations of the British Commonwealth: "We can only dispel the clouds of anxiety by the patient and determined efforts of us all. It cannot be done by condemning the past or by contracting out of the present. Angry words and accusations certainly don't do any good, however justified they may be."

Pope John XXIII, in a papal bull convoking a worldwide conference of the Roman Catholic Church next year for the first time since 1869, warned that "while humanity is on the verge of a new era, the church faces tasks of immense gravity and breadth as in the most tragic epochs of her history."

Palestinians, pilgrims and tourists packed the Christian churches at Jerusalem, and about 10,000 visitors journeyed across the Judean hills to services at Bethlehem, bathed in a brilliant winter sun.

Amid the prayers and the feasting, violence erupted as usual. A terrorist bombing killed at least 50 persons among 500 worshippers at Christmas Eve services at an army barracks at Bugata, Colombia. More than 110 were reported injured in the blast, which came as a procession was about to place a figure of the infant Jesus in a manger.

In Algeria the underground Secret Army Organization of anti-De Gaulle Frenchmen proclaimed a Christmas truce. But elsewhere in the North African territory terrorism from both sides of the French-Algerian conflict resulted in the deaths of 17 Algerians and 14 Europeans, and the wounding of 33 Algerians and 24 Europeans.

Messages from Queen Juliana of the Netherlands and President Sukarno of Indonesia to their peoples reflected to the rising tension between the two nations over Dutch-held West Guinea.

Roman Catholic priests in Goa, biggest of the three enclaves which India captured last week, prayed for the prosperity of India at special services. The bishop of Pangim — the Goan capital — charged that the Portuguese had deprived Goans of full freedom and called Indian Prime Minister Nehru the world's No. 1 man of peace.

The Chinese Communists broke a record 104-day lull in the Formosa strait and fired 53 shells at the Quemoy Islands, the Chinese Nationalist Defense Ministry announced in Taipei.

It was a white Christmas and a bitterly cold one for much of the northern part of the United States and Europe. Snow blanketed most of Scandinavia, parts of Germany and from the Rockies east in the United States. Even Florida was hit by a cold wave. Traffic deaths mounted on the icy roads, but the National Safety Council doubted the toll would exceed 1953's record of 609 highway dead.

President Is Back on Duty; Physical Examination Due

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — President Kennedy goes back to work on the nation's business today while keeping a careful watch on the condition of his seriously ill father.

Logan Sowers Dies While Driving Car

A 60-year-old Circleville man died in his automobile enroute to work Sunday morning.

Logan Sowers, 224 Logan St., was pronounced dead-on-arrival at 7:45 a. m. Sunday in Berger Hospital's emergency room.

Mr. Sowers was stricken while waiting for a traffic light at the intersection of Scioto and Main Sts., according to City Police.

Officers said that an unidentified motorist, immediately behind Mr. Sowers' auto, observed the vehicle coasting into moving traffic.

THE ALERT motorist stopped his auto and proceeded quickly to turn off the ignition of the Sowers' auto that had moved into the intersection.

Police arrived at the scene and rushed Mr. Sowers to the hospital, where he was pronounced DOA by the resident physician.

Mr. Sowers, who was employed by the Circleville Oil Company for about 19 years, was born April 1, 1901, in Vinton County, the son of Alonzo and Dana Moore Sowers.

He is survived by his widow, Verna Hudnell Sowers; his mother, Mrs. Alonzo Sowers, of Audrey's Nursing Home; a daughter, Mrs. Daniel Garrett, Route 2; two grandchildren and five brothers, Bruce, of 330 E. Union St.; Glen, of Waverly; Delno, of Lancaster; Rennie, of Ashville; and Fremont Sowers, Route 3.

Services will be at 1 p. m. tomorrow in the Deffenbaugh Funeral Home with the Rev. Alonzo Hill officiating. Burial will be in the Jackson Township Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home.

Once Around Roundtown

WORDS OF caution on post-Christmas motoring have gone out from local traffic safety officials.

Practically all of the city's streets are clear now, but small patches of ice and slippery areas around intersections and curbs still provide potential accident hazards for unwary drivers. Police have advised minimum speeds for safe operation.

State highway officials have reported Ohio routes open through-out the area, with most safe and dry. Some less-traveled state roads, while safe for cautious operation, have snow and ice that can be dangerous.

County Engineer Henry T. McGrady advised drivers to "take it easy" on Pickaway thoroughfares. Slippery spots remain in several areas, McGrady said, though quick work by his crews averted the necessity of closing any roads.

Sun glare, a threat under today's brilliantly blue skies, could distract motorists attempting to drive too quickly, officials warned.

THE QUESTION most often repeated today in Circleville: "Well, how was your Christmas?" The most frequent answer: "Wonderful!"

CHRISTMAS GIFTS purchased from leading Circleville retail stores may be exchanged anytime before January 6, Nat Lefko, president of the Circleville Area Chamber of Commerce announced today.

Exchanges may be made for different colors or sizes, Lefko said.

Where customers wish to make an exchange for another type of merchandise, an exchange certificate is given and may be used in any department of the store.

A special Christmas warmth lingered across the continent today. It burned in the eyes of children of misfortune remembered by the fortunate, in the minds of troubled adults touched by the kindness of neighbors, and in the hearts of the charitable who experienced again the blessedness of giving.

Examples? They were nigh as countless as the strands in the beard of that ageless North Pole resident who circled the earth in the predawn hours Monday.

Freddie Downer, 7, was killed by a car early this month as he crossed a street in Massena, N.Y., to telephone Santa Claus and remind him of an important letter he had written.

"Even if you have to leave me out, Santa," the boy wrote, "please don't forget my sister."

Three year old Vicky was not forgotten.

Through the magic that is St. Nick's way of doing things, gifts and money for more gifts turned morning.

In Bloomfield, Conn., friends of the 11 children of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Cahill went caroling to gather donations for the Cahills, who were made homeless by a fire two nights before Christmas. Louisa Cahill, 7, was critically burned.

Bloomfield and other communities responded with fund drives, gifts and clothing.

Fires Saturday night destroyed the homes of the James Sanders and Clarence Lofton families in Nashville. Both Negro families lost all their possessions, including the Christmas presents.

But the word spread, and by Christmas morn they had received money, food, clothing and promises of furniture.

At New Cumberland, Pa., near Harrisburg, a fire two weeks ago left Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Jones and their seven children without home, clothing or personal possessions.

The Fairview Fire Co., its Ladies auxiliary, the Fairview Lions' club and others in the community pooled their compassion.

The Jones had a partially completed house which they planned to occupy in about six months. Local merchants contributed insulation, plumbing, heating, electrical wire and flooring.

The ladies auxiliary purchased new Christmas gifts.

Forty men got together Dec. 17 and started work on the house.

On Christmas morning the Jones were in their new home. They had a tree laden with toys delivered by a Santa Claus Helper Christmas Eve.

Silas Brown, who worked on shrimp boats in Florida, went to Texas to seek a trucking job. He arrived in Galveston with his wife and seven children—and $2.

Police found the family on Christmas Eve under a causeway, where they had gone for shelter.

"I knew these people in Galveston had suffered from the hurricane and I didn't want to push in on them," Brown explained.

Police arranged for a free meal, then clothing, free lodging through the holidays, more than $200 in cash, toys, a turkey dinner — and perhaps most important, a job offer.

"It kind of reaffirms your faith," said Brown.

In Springfield, Mo., a man went in the Salvation Army Christmas morning and asked how much the organization needed to meet its goal for its Christmas fund for needy families.

"$991," he was advised.

The caller, who asked that his name not be revealed, sent a check for the $991.

Once Around Roundtown

WORDS OF caution on post-Christmas motoring have gone out from local traffic safety officials.

Practically all of the city's streets are clear now, but small patches of ice and slippery areas around intersections and curbs still provide potential accident hazards for unwary drivers. Police have advised minimum speeds for safe operation.

State highway officials have reported Ohio routes open through-out the area, with most safe and dry. Some less-traveled state roads, while safe for cautious operation, have snow and ice that can be dangerous.

County Engineer Henry T. McGrady advised drivers to "take it easy" on Pickaway thoroughfares. Slippery spots remain in several areas, McGrady said, though quick work by his crews averted the necessity of closing any roads.

Sun glare, a threat under today's brilliantly blue skies, could distract motorists attempting to drive too quickly, officials warned.

THE QUESTION most often repeated today in Circleville: "Well, how was your Christmas?" The most frequent answer: "Wonderful!"

CHRISTMAS GIFTS purchased from leading Circleville retail stores may be exchanged anytime before January 6, Nat Lefko, president of the Circleville Area Chamber of Commerce announced today.

Exchanges may be made for different colors or sizes, Lefko said.

Where customers wish to make an exchange for another type of merchandise, an exchange certificate is given and may be used in any department of the store.

Chipped Ice Makes White Christmas

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—Two New Orleans youngsters had a white Christmas even though the temperature climbed into the 50s.

William Nungesser, who owns and operates a seafood cannery, spread six tons of chipped ice on his front lawn Sunday night and added another four tons Christmas morning.

His children, Nancy, 4, and Billy, 2, built a four-foot snowman and, until the sun melted it, enjoyed the white Christmas for which they had wished.

Highway Fatality Count Hits 521

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Traffic	521
Fires	83
Miscellaneous	85
Total	689

Christmas holiday traffic deaths soared past the 500 estimate of the National Safety Council to a six-year record Monday night.

The latest count of the three-day Yuletide period from 6 p.m. local time, Friday to midnight Monday was 521. Fires took 83 other lives and 85 persons died in miscellaneous mishaps. The overall total of violent deaths was 689. The council increased its estimate to 550 or more midway through the holiday period.

The toll ran considerably higher than did the results of a 78-hour, nonholiday weekend survey conducted by The Associated Press. In the period from 6 p.m. Friday, Dec. 8, to midnight, Dec. 11, 347 persons were killed in traffic accidents, 42 died in fires and 57 were killed in miscellaneous accidents for a total of 446.

Among the worst highway accidents was a two-car collision near Hearne, Tex., in which five persons were killed and two others injured.

Two couples were killed and five girls, aged 3 to 15, were orphaned when a station wagon and an automobile collided near Warren, Pa.

In Marietta, Ohio, a car carrying a group of young carolers, and a truck collided, killing two boys and the father of one of the youths. The mother, following in another car, watched the tragedy.

Fires added to the grim holiday toll. In Groton, N. Y., three of a widow's five children and a farm laborer perished in a fire which destroyed a two-story frame building. A father and his twin 5-year-old stepdaughters died in flames which swept their home in Nankin Township near Detroit.

First Congolese Unit Readied For U.N. Duty

By PETER GROSE
LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Ninety Congolese soldiers will put on the blue berets of the United Nations Wednesday to join the U.N. army at Kamina base, the United Nations announced today. They are to have the same status as any other national contingent in the U.N. Congo force.

They will be the first of more than 900 Congolese soldiers scheduled to serve eventually under the U.N. flag.

Their duties at Kamina, U.N. officials said, will be to guard the important U.N. base in Katanga Province and perform routine reconnaissance work alongside Indian, Swedish, Norwegian and Canadian troops based there.

U.N. headquarters made clear the Congolese are not to be used in any offensive actions against Katanga President Moise Tshombe's secessionist government. But their presence is likely to increase Tshombe's fear the United Nations may assist the central Congolese army to recapture Katanga by force.

The political crisis between the central government and Katanga settled into a nervous period of apprehension while officials waited to see if Tshombe would stick to the agreement he signed last week with Premier Cyrille Adoula of the central government.

The first test of the Tshombe declaration, in which he promised in effect to end Katanga's secession, will come Wednesday when the Katanga members of Parliament are supposed to arrive to take up their places in the national legislature.

U.N. sources indicated that arrangements are being made to fly the 15 Katanga legislators to Leopoldville in a U.N. plane and house them here in accommodations guarded by the United Nations.

THE IMPACT forced Mrs. Kidwell's auto into the northbound lane of traffic and was hit head-on by McGinn's auto. Mrs. Kidwell's vehicle was struck in the rear by a fourth vehicle driven by Fred W. Sims Jr., 22, Columbus, who suffered severe lacerations, abrasions and contusions of the chest, left arm and left leg.

According to Patrolmen the accident occurred when a southbound auto driven by Abraham Robinson, 32, Cleveland, skidded into the rear of Mrs. Kidwell's vehicle, which had slowed down for a snow plow.

State Patrolmen said that all four autos involved were heavily damaged.

Robinson was cited to appear in Circleville Municipal Court for failing to provide the assured clear distance ahead.

Priest Says U.S. Gifts Appreciated

TRACADIE, N. B. (AP)—A Roman Catholic parish priest says that his parishioners snapped up Christmas gifts from U.S. airmen that were criticized locally as being of poor quality.

The Rev. Arthur Duguay said the shipment of fruit, chocolate bars and clothing from airmen at MacDill Air Force Base in Florida seemed to have "gone with the wind" in the nearby community of Brantville.

Airmen at the Florida base collected the Christmas gifts and had them flown more than 2,500 miles to Brantville after finding notes attached to imported Christmas trees telling of hard times.

Claude Savoie, member of the New Brunswick Legislature, contended that most of the fruit was spoiled and that the clothing was unusable. He called the offering an insult to the residents.

Father Duguay said a number of parishioners met with him in his office and expressed willingness to accept the presents. The priest said his people appreciated the airmen's efforts.

JFK Acclaims Berlin Freedom

Concern Is Expressed Over Trouble Spots

Leaders of the Western world appealed for peace and unity in Christmas messages Monday while expressing grave concern over differences dividing major powers and flareups troubling lesser ones.

President Kennedy assured West Berliners in a taped television broadcast that the beacon of free Berlin "will continue to shine brightly for many years to come."

"We are at your side — as before," Kennedy declared "We shall stay. Until truly there is good will among men, not walls to divide them, our pursuit of peace shall continue."

West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt cabled Kennedy his appreciation, asserting that "Berliners will take upon themselves new burdens rather than to forsake convictions and principles which free men all over the world are willing to defend."

Churches were filled to capacity in both East and West Berlin. The grim concrete and barbed wire wall the Communists threw up to divide the city was softened a bit by the first Christmas snow in five years. Some 800 lighted Christmas trees twinkled along the Western side of the wall to remind the East Berliners they were not forgotten.

Queen Elizabeth II said in a broadcast to the nations of the British Commonwealth: "We can only dispel the clouds of anxiety by the patient and determined efforts of us all. It cannot be done by condemning the past or by contracting out of the present. Angry words and accusations certainly don't do any good, however justified they may be."

Pope John XXIII, in a papal bull convoking a worldwide conference of the Roman Catholic Church next year for the first time since 1869, warned that "while humanity is on the verge of a new era, the church faces tasks of immense gravity and breadth as in the most tragic epochs of her history."

Palestinians, pilgrims and tourists packed the Christian churches at Jerusalem, and about 10,000 visitors journeyed across the Judean hills to services at Bethlehem, bathed in a brilliant winter sun.

Amid the prayers and the feasting, violence erupted as usual.

A terrorist bombing killed at least 50 persons among 500 worshippers at Christmas Eve services at an army barracks at Bugata, Colombia. More than 110 were reported injured in the blast, which came as a procession was about to place a figure of the infant Jesus in a manger.

In Algeria the underground Secret Army Organization of anti-De Gaulle Frenchmen proclaimed a Christmas truce. But elsewhere in the North African territory terrorism from both sides of the French-Algerian conflict resulted in the deaths of 17 Algerians and 14 Europeans, and the wounding of 33 Algerians and 24 Europeans.

Messages from Queen Juliana of the Netherlands and President Sukarno of Indonesia to their peoples reflected the rising tension between the two nations over Dutch-held West New Guinea.

Roman Catholic priests in Goa, biggest of the three enclaves which India captured last week, prayed for the prosperity of India at special services. The bishop of Pangim — the Goan capital — charged that the Portuguese had deprived Goans of full freedom and called Indian Prime Minister Nehru the world's No. 1 man of peace.

The Chinese Communists broke a record 104-day lull in the Formosa strait and fired 53 shells at the Quemoy Islands, the Chinese Nationalist Defense Ministry announced in Taipei.

It was a white Christmas and a bitterly cold one for much of the northern part of the United States and Europe. Snow blanketed most of Scandinavia, parts of Germany and from the Rockies east in the United States. Even Florida was hit by a cold wave. Traffic deaths mounted on the icy roads, but the National Safety Council doubted the toll would exceed 1955's record of 609 highway dead.

Two Injured In 4-Car Crash

A four-car accident, which occurred at 3:25 a. m. Sunday two miles south of Harrisburg on Route 62, sent two persons to Mt. Carmel Hospital, Columbus.

State Patrolmen reported that the accident, along with several other "fender benders," came as a direct result of the slippery snow covered highways Saturday and Sunday.

According to Patrolmen the accident occurred when a southbound auto driven by Abraham Robinson, 32, Cleveland, skidded into the rear of Mrs. Kidwell's vehicle, which had slowed down for a snow plow.

State Patrolmen said that all four autos involved were heavily damaged.

Robinson was cited to appear in Circleville Municipal Court for failing to provide the assured clear distance ahead.

Welfare Unit Chief Visits Here Today

Several potential distribution centers for the Pickaway County Welfare Department's contemplated surplus commodities program were to be inspected this afternoon by Robert F. McGonagle, chief of the state welfare department's division of commodities distribution.

Miss Pauline Reese, local welfare director, said McGonagle's visit had been scheduled since the county commissioners have expressed an interest in moving ahead as quickly as possible with the program to distribute foods to relief recipients from surplus government supplies.

One possible location for the operation is a building at the county Fairgrounds on Route 22 near the city corporation limit.

Cold Hits Europe
LONDON (AP)—Winter held an icy grip on most of Europe today. The cold extended from Scandinavia to northern Italy, and temperatures dropped below freezing in London. Around Paris temperatures were at freezing levels. In Berlin, the mercury dropped to 4 below.

Snipers Fail To Dim Yule Spirit at Viet Nam Camp

EDITORS NOTE—Malcolm W. Browne, Associated Press correspondent for South Viet Nam, spent Christmas at an advanced training base north of Saigon, where 15 U.S. Army instructors and their Vietnamese trainees observed the holiday under the eyes of Viet Cong snipers.

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE
TRUNG LAP, South Viet Nam (AP)—Despite the constant threat of Viet Cong snipers and guerrillas, 15 U.S. Army men and their Vietnamese trainees stationed at this lonely ranger base in the jungle observed Christmas with a midnight Mass, a Christmas tree and a turkey dinner.

The Mass was said in Vietnamese by a South Vietnamese army chaplain. The Christmas tree was small and mounted on cases of mortar shells. And the turkey dinner had been carried 30 miles north from Saigon over bumpy, dangerous roads. But Trung Lap camp spent a peaceful holiday.

With the Americans were about 500 Vietnamese ranger trainees and their officers, some 70 of them Christians. Next week the rangers will begin field training problems conducted on the "learn while you fight" principle. The maneuvers will be conducted against the Viet Cong rebels themselves.

During the past week, the Viet Cong had tried to burn down two bridges on a rutted, dusty road connecting the camp with the outside world. Communist sniper fire had been taking its toll of casualties among the Vietnamese rangers.

As the sun set on Christmas Eve, sounds of rooster calls and tom-toms told the camp that the Viet Cong outposts were watching and signalling from the surrounding rice fields and underbrush.

The new diesel generator was started, and lights came on in the new mess hall. A string of lights on the Christmas tree was plugged in and Capt. Linton C. Beasley of Lynchburg, Va., senior U. S. adviser at the camp, produced a tape recorder with some Christmas carol tapes. When the generator failed, the men lighted candles and sang.

During the day, the Rev. Dinh Tuan Ngan had arrived at the camp under heavy escort in his pink chaplain's jeep. Father Ngan could speak no English but communicated with the Americans in enthusiastic, broken French, and prepared a makeshift altar and confessional in a training hut. During the past year, the Viet Cong has made priests special targets. A French priest was murdered while visiting his parishioners two weeks ago.

After dinner Monday, the Americans played cards, swapped stories, read or wrote letters. Most were lonely. For all this was the first Christmas in Viet Nam, and for some of the younger officers it was the first Christmas away from home. Most are married and have children back at home.

Shortly before midnight, the massive barbed wire gate to the fort was opened. Vietnamese rangers carrying Tommy guns escorted about 20 women and their children from the nearby village inside. All the villagers were dressed in their best clothes and had come for Mass. The children were given candy and taken to see the Christmas tree, but the generator had failed and the tree lights were out. In the darkness, the children inspected the tinsel by flashlight illumination.

The villagers were joined at the Mass by the Christian rangers and most of the Americans. Firecrackers were exploded to scare off mosquitoes, and the priest solemnly intoned the Roman Catholic rites.

As the villagers walked away from the improvised chapel, an American mortarman fired five illuminating flares into the warm northern sky, casting a bright glare over the rice fields. The shells exploded in the sky, forming the rough pattern of a star. Lookout posts checked the field, but no Viet Cong were in sight.

On Christmas Day, the Americans moved out of camp in combat formation for an inspection of the bridges and the nearby village. Children flocked around and candy was distributed.

During the day an army plane flew low over the camp, dropping a box of mail. The mail plane was not tried to land at the camp since breaking its landing gear there several months ago.

Just before sunset, Americans and Vietnamese set up a volleyball net and played until dinner. The prized turkey and fixings were prepared with a flourish by Sgt. Al Combs, 34, of Brooklyn, N.Y., whose wife and four children stayed in Okinawa when he was sent to Viet Nam.

Along with all the other U.S. troops at Trung Lap, Combs can cook, fire mortars, train Vietnamese rangers, perform minor surgery, fix communications equipment, demolish enemy emplacements, fight in any kind of terrain, make combat parachute jumps or hack paths through the jungle. But on Christmas his principal problem was preparation of cranberry sauce.

The men went to bed early. There had been an intelligence report that a Viet Cong platoon with at least one automatic weapon had moved into the area, and the war would continue tomorrow.

Snipers Fail To Dim Yule Spirit at Viet Nam Camp

EDITORS NOTE—Malcolm W. Browne, Associated Press correspondent for South Viet Nam, spent Christmas at an advanced training base north of Saigon, where 15 U.S. Army instructors and their Vietnamese trainees observed the holiday under the eyes of Viet Cong snipers.

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE
TRUNG LAP, South Viet Nam (AP)—Despite the constant threat of Viet Cong snipers and guerrillas, 15 U.S. Army men and their Vietnamese trainees stationed at this lonely ranger base in the jungle observed Christmas with a midnight Mass, a Christmas tree and a turkey dinner.

The Mass was said in Vietnamese by a South Vietnamese army chaplain. The Christmas tree was small and mounted on a case of mortar shells. And the turkey dinner had been carried 30 miles north from Saigon over bumpy, dangerous roads. But Trung Lap camp spent a peaceful holiday.

With the Americans were about 500 Vietnamese ranger trainees and their officers, some 70 of them Christians. Next week the rangers will begin field training problems conducted on the "learn while you fight" principle. The maneuvers will be conducted against the Viet Cong rebels themselves.

During the past week, the Viet Cong had tried to burn down two bridges on a rutted, dusty road connecting the camp with the outside world. Communist sniper fire had been taking its toll of casualties among the Vietnamese rangers.

As the sun set on Christmas Eve, sounds of rooster calls and tom-toms told the camp that the Viet Cong outposts were watching and signaling from the surrounding rice fields and underbrush.

The new diesel generator was started, and lights came on in the new mess hall. A string of lights on the Christmas tree was plugged in, and Capt. Linton C. Beasley of Lynchburg, Va., senior U. S. adviser at the camp, produced a tape recorder with some Christmas carol tapes. When the generator failed, the men lighted candles and sang.

During the day, the Rev. Dinh Tuan Nguan had arrived at the camp under heavy escort in his pink chaplain's jeep. Father Nguan could speak no English but communicated with the Americans in enthusiastic, broken French, and prepared a makeshift altar and confessional in a training hut. During the past year, the Viet Cong has made priests special targets. A French priest was murdered while visiting his parishioners two weeks ago.

After dinner Monday, the Americans played cards, swapped stories, read or wrote letters. Most were lonely. For all this was the first Christmas in Viet Nam, and for some of the younger officers it was the first Christmas away from home. Most are married and have children back at home.

Shortly before midnight, the massive barbed wire gate to the fort was opened. Vietnamese rangers carrying tommy guns escorted about 20 women and their children from the nearby village inside. All the villagers were dressed in their best clothes and had come for Mass. The children were given candy and taken to see the Christmas tree, but the generator had failed and the tree lights were out. In the darkness, the children inspected the tinsel by flashlight illumination.

The villagers were joined at the Mass by the Christian rangers and most of the Americans. Firecrackers were exploded to scare off mosquitoes, and the priest solemnly intoned the Roman Catholic rites.

As the villagers walked away from the improvised chapel, an American mortarman fired five illuminating flares into the warm northern sky, casting a bright glare over the rice fields. The shells exploded in the sky, forming the rough pattern of a star. Lookout posts checked the field, but no Viet Cong were in sight.

On Christmas Day, the Americans moved out of camp in combat formation for an inspection of the bridges and the nearby village. Children flocked around and candy was distributed.

During the day an army plane flew low over the camp, dropping a box of mail. The mail plane has not tried to land at the camp since breaking its landing gear there several months ago.

Just before sunset, Americans and Vietnamese set up a volleyball net and played until dinner. The prized turkey and fixings were prepared with a flourish by Sgt. Al Combs, 34, of Brooklyn, N.Y., whose wife and four children stayed in Okinawa when he was sent to Viet Nam.

Along with all the other U.S. troops at Trung Lap, Combs can cook, fire mortars, train Vietnamese rangers, perform minor surgery, fix communications equipment, demolish enemy emplacements, fight in any kind of terrain, make combat parachute jumps or hack paths through the jungle. But on Christmas his principal problem was preparation of cranberry sauce.

The men went to bed early. There had been an intelligence report that a Viet Cong platoon with at least one automatic weapon had moved into the area, and the war would continue tomorrow.

Troops Arriving Prior to Meeting Of Laos Princes

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—The International Control Commission today began an airlift of 220 neutralist and pro-Communist troops to Vientiane for the long-awaited meeting Wednesday of Laos' three politician princes.

Versatile Jim Durante Again Playing Famed Elephant Role

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Twenty-five years ago, James Durante uttered the classic remark: "An elephant never forgets, but what's he got to remember?"

That was in a stage extravaganza called "Jumbo," which Billy Rose produced at New York's old Hippodrome.

Proving the agelessness of the great Schnozola, Jimmy is once again playing with the pachyderms in a film version of "Jumbo." It begins shooting shortly with Doris Day, Stephen Boyd and Martha Raye lending support to the long-nosed actors.

It is perhaps stretching the truth to say that Durante will be playing with the pachyderms. His contact with the elephants will be limited in the MGM film, and thereby hangs a tale.

"I loved dat elephant," Jimmy reminisced about the original Jumbo. "He was like a brudder to me."

"You know what I did? I let him put his foot up and step right over me while I was lyin' on the ground. Step right over me, he did. Den he rolled on his side and laid down right next to me. I'm tellin' ya, it brought down the house."

"Well, I was doin' this for several weeks in the show when one night Frank Buck—the 'bring 'em back alive' Frank Buck—comes to my dressin' room."

"'You're outa your mind, doin' that stunt,' he tells me. 'Why, I'd never trust an elephant any further'n I could throw him.'"

"This scared the pants offa me. Next day I call a meetin'. Dere was Billy Rose and Hecht and MacArthur and Rodgers and Hart and I tell 'em, 'Boys, we gotta get a new act. Dat elephant is liftin' his foot over me for the last time.'"

"'We can't do that, Jimmy,' they tell me. 'Dat's the hit of the show!' So they talked me into it. 'So every night I let dat elephant lift his foot over me, and I was sweatin' every time. He always did it dainty, but one day he put his foot down on a block of cement and cracked it to pieces.'"

"Jumbo and me parted company when the show closed after eight months. Believe me, I was not sorry. 'So here I am back with de elephant. I tell you one ting—this one ain't goin' to step over me. I got it written in my contract.'"

Sen. Brewster, New Deal foe, Dead at 73

BOSTON (AP)—Former U. S. Sen. Owen Brewster of Maine, an arch foe of Franklin D. Roosevelt's New Deal and for 18 years Maine's most potent political figure, died in a Christian Science retreat house Monday. He was 73.

The Republican lawmaker and his wife had been at the Christian Science Benevolent Association House for a week.

Brewster, a former president of the Christian Science Mother Church, had made periodic retreats at the house.

He is survived by his widow, Dorothy, and a son, Charles a Bangor, Maine, attorney.

Christian Science funeral services will be held in the First Universalist church in Dexter, Maine, Thursday at 2:30 p.m.

Brewster was defeated in his bid for a third Senate term in 1952. Since then he had lived quietly in semiretirement, spending nine months of the year in Washington and the rest in Dexter, his home town.

In his career Brewster clashed with many political opponents.

A strong conservative, the Maine Republican fought President Franklin D. Roosevelt's New Deal. He particularly disliked its reciprocal trade program, dubbing it "Alice in Wonderland" economics.

However, he fully supported Roosevelt in the war, saying "if I am compelled to a choice between Roosevelt and Hitler, I choose Roosevelt."

Versatile Jim Durante Again Playing Famed Elephant Role

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Twenty-five years ago, James Durante uttered the classic remark: "An elephant never forgets, but what's he got to remember?"

That was in a stage extravaganza called "Jumbo," which Billy Rose produced at New York's old Hippodrome.

Proving the agelessness of the great Schnozola, Jimmy is once again playing with the pachyderms in a film version of "Jumbo." It begins shooting shortly with Doris Day, Stephen Boyd and Martha Raye lending support to the long-nosed actors.

It is perhaps stretching the truth to say that Durante will be playing with the pachyderms. His contact with the elephants will be limited in the MGM film, and thereby hangs a tale.

"I loved dat elephant," Jimmy reminisced about the original Jumbo. "He was like a brudder to me."

"You know what I did? I let him put his foot up and step right over me while I was lyin' on the ground. Step right over me, he did. Den he rolled on his side and laid down right next to me. I'm tellin' ya, it brought down the house."

"Well, I was doin' this for several weeks in the show when one night Frank Buck—the 'bring 'em back alive' Frank Buck—comes to my dressin' room."

"'You're outa your mind, doin' that stunt,' he tells me. 'Why, I'd never trust an elephant any further'n I could throw him.'"

"This scared the pants offa me. Next day I call a meetin'. Dere was Billy Rose and Hecht and MacArthur and Rodgers and Hart and I tell 'em, 'Boys, we gotta get a new act. Dat elephant is liftin' his foot over me for the last time.'"

"'We can't do that, Jimmy,' they tell me. 'Dat's the hit of the show!' So they talked me into it. 'So every night I let dat elephant lift his foot over me, and I was sweatin' every time. He always did it dainty, but one day he put his foot down on a block of cement and cracked it to pieces.'"

Minuteman Decision

Was the plan for train-borne mobile Minuteman missiles a costly mistake? The cost of the test program, which has now been jettisoned, was $108 million. In the sense that this $108 million will never be available to retaliate against attack, it was a waste. But abandonment of the program could mean a saving in the long run. According to Defense Secretary McNamara, the cost of 90 mobile Minutemen on railroad cars could buy 150 Minutemen in underground silos. The silos would be expected to protect the missiles against attack, a virtue claimed for the mobile missiles. This is conjecture, but the administration's recent re-evaluation of comparative missile strength of the United States and the USSR may have had a bearing on the

GOP Looks to Farm States

Convinced there is widespread dissatisfaction with the Kennedy administration's farm program, Midwestern Republican leaders are preparing to underline that issue in next year's congressional campaigns. Their goal is to add 12 House seats to the 13 they gained last year. Nixon also carried most of the farm states. Republicans make the following points: The feed grain program, designed, to cut surpluses, has made scarcely a dent in the reserves. The government is selling surplus grain in rising volume, keeping prices low at the expense of corn and sorghum growers who decision to abandon the mobile Minuteman. The mobile missile concept was imaginative and is essentially sound, for a strategy based on the assumption that the U.S. will receive the first strike. Some of our weapons must escape that attack. But the submarine-borne Polaris provides an "attack-proof" mobile force, and the Minuteman was apparently considered wasteful duplication of that form of deterrent. Some of the $108 million may be recovered in the form of information gained by the experiment. The rest is down the drain. But it is better to terminate the program, if the weapon is not needed, before actual production when costs really start soaring.

did not participate in the reduced acreage program. A disastrous decline in hog prices is due next year. A soybean surplus is accumulating at heavy cost because the government hiked the support price 45 cents a bushel. The dairy and poultry industries are floundering. One spokesman said every major livestock commodity except cattle brought lower prices to farmers in November. If all this is true, the administration can be expected to attempt to pull some rabbits out of the hat and get that farmincome up.

The Business World

NEW YORK (AP) — Business is starting to put up hard cash to back its bet that more prosperous days are ahead. Corporation directors are ordering more money be spent on new plants and especially on new equipment. Executives of leading companies are announcing plans to raise outlays for expansion in 1962, some to new annual highs. Machine tool makers say a pickup in orders foreshadows a resumption of the upward trend in capital spending that was sidetracked when the recession led many companies to retrench. The construction industry says contracts, awarded or up for bidding, are taking the same trend. Such a pickup in business spending will give the economy a good boost. It will add materially to the new strength furnished by the spurt in consumer spending in the final weeks of 1961.

THIRD CUBA FRONT — Eloy Gutierrez Menoyo, who as a Fidel Castro officer helped down dictator Batista, tells reporters in Miami, Fla., that the anti-Castro guerrillas are operating on a third front in Cuba, in Las Villas Province, and that Raul Castro, Fidel's brother, has thrown some 25,000 men against them. The other two areas of guerrilla operations are in Pinar del Rio in the West and Oriente in the East.

Q. Will the vitamin A in fish liver oil help acne?
A.: No. High doses of non-oily vitamin A help prevent whiteheads and blackheads, but oily vitamin A can magnify the acne problem.
Q. Does vitamin A prevent skin infection?
A.: No. In vitamin A lack, open cracks in the skin invite infection. But vitamin A can't defend healthy skin any more than a tattooed battleship.
Q. Will cortisone - containing vitamin A ointment cure patchy baldness (alopecia areata)? Does walnut juice help?
A.: Neither vitamin A nor cortisone help on the patch itself. Walnut juice might. Its dark stain can camouflage bald patches - providing you're not blonde!
Q. What is this vitamin B2 (riboflavin) deficiency I'm supposed to have? My doctor says I'll need daily vitamin B2 pills the rest of my life.
A.: Riboflavin deficiency may bring on greasy scales around nose and mouth, open sores in the corners of the mouth and bloodshot eyes around each pupil.
Other conditions cause these same troubles.
Are you sure your doctor said vitamin B2? Any vitamin deficiency usually involves several vitamins.
Meat, milk and even beer can help supply your daily riboflavin ration.
Q.: Do vitamins affect blood pressure?
A.: Definitely. Vitamin deficiencies can lead to heart failure with low blood pressure. Bleeding in scurvy (vitamin C lack) may embolus pressure below shock level. Vitamin D poisoning clogs kid-

Nehru's Death Blow
By George Sokolsky
Nehru, the prattler on idealism, has done to the United Nations what Mussolini did to the League of Nations. He has given it a death blow from which it is not likely, that it can recover. When Soviet Russia hurls its 100th Veto at international morality, that is likely to be the end of the story.
For what Nehru has accomplished is the establishment of a Soviet-Afro-Asian technique to force the Western powers to subservience in the United Nations. The Afro-Asians are to perform outrageous acts and Soviet Russia is to use the Veto to protect them from repudiation. It is an alliance if the weak and backward nations against the West. It is a trick organized by the béggar nations to destroy their benefactors.
Only Soviet Russia can benefit from this international juggling and therefore Russia will continue to support this gambit until either all the world is in political and economic turmoil or Soviet Russia has conquered Europe, Asia and Africa and is waiting only for its actions against the American continents.
The United Nations has not the possibility left to maintain the peace of the world. Its moral vigor is gone. No one can rise and speak for peace without hypocrisy. The American technique of intervention by financial assistance in a campaign against colonialism has utterly failed. Those who yesterday were freed by us from subservience to Western European powers have enslaved themselves to Soviet Russia. This they have done out of revenge for centuries of history, but the result is nonetheless slavery.
Nehru, who was Gandhi's apostle in a successful movement to free India from Great Britain, has shackled his country to the Slav and the Chinese and now must either beg them to let him live or beg us to save his country from the power that has seized it. The entire Eurasian continent will soon become a competitive field between Soviet Russia and Red China. What is the rest of the world to do while this fruitless struggle proceeds within the Soviet Universal State?
There are Americans who say that we need not worry; that neither the Russians nor the Chinese possess the power to make war on the West; that they will cut each other's throats. There are those who believe that famine, flood and bad government in those countries will solve our problems.
What evidence do they have that Soviet Russia will not make war on us? What evidence do they have that the Red Chinese will not explode the firecracker that will bring on Armageddon? They are willing to gamble on statistics rather than on psychiatry. They are willing to believe that no madman will let loose the forces of death and destruction as Genghis Khan did; as every Asiatic Conqueror did. They are hopeful that in an eventual quarrel between the United States, will come off the victor. But suppose not?
Such gambles are too dangerous to contemplate. We must be physically strong and sure if purpose against the enemies we now face and we cannot continue to make mistakes or to hope that time will give us advantage. We dare not speculate on prospects of incidental advantage; we need to be able to strike the first blow, if need be. We must be ready for war.
To many Americans, this may sound horrible. They will say that one will not be taken to war, as usual advocates war. They will ignore history and permit their minds to be covered with the moss of mystical hopefulness.
But the fact is a chilling one. Year by year, since 1939, we witness the growth of Soviet power and the subservience of nations, once our friends, to the Kremlin. We have missed opportunity so often and now the enemy sits 90 miles from our doorstep and is moving swiftly. We must face this monster wherever he is and bring him to a swift death or we shall perish in his blood. We dare not speculate; we dare not gamble that he will wear himself out because his way of life is wrong. In history, it has often been that incorrect ways of life have long prevailed and Nehru is an example of how wrong and dangerous a hypocritical prattler can be in this era of confusion.

According to Defense Secretary McNamara, the cost of 90 mobile Minutemen on railroad cars could buy 150 Minutemen in underground silos. The silos would be expected to protect the missiles against attack, a virtue claimed for the mobile missiles. This is conjecture, but the administration's recent re-evaluation of comparative missile strength of the United States and the USSR may have had a bearing on the

Convinced there is widespread dissatisfaction with the Kennedy administration's farm program, Midwestern Republican leaders are preparing to underline that issue in next year's congressional campaigns. Their goal is to add 12 House seats to the 13 they gained last year. Nixon also carried most of the farm states. Republicans make the following points: The feed grain program, designed, to cut surpluses, has made scarcely a dent in the reserves. The government is selling surplus grain in rising volume, keeping prices low at the expense of corn and sorghum growers who decision to abandon the mobile Minuteman. The mobile missile concept was imaginative and is essentially sound, for a strategy based on the assumption that the U.S. will receive the first strike. Some of our weapons must escape that attack. But the submarine-borne Polaris provides an "attack-proof" mobile force, and the Minuteman was apparently considered wasteful duplication of that form of deterrent. Some of the $108 million may be recovered in the form of information gained by the experiment. The rest is down the drain. But it is better to terminate the program, if the weapon is not needed, before actual production when costs really start soaring.

did not participate in the reduced acreage program. A disastrous decline in hog prices is due next year. A soybean surplus is accumulating at heavy cost because the government hiked the support price 45 cents a bushel. The dairy and poultry industries are floundering. One spokesman said every major livestock commodity except cattle brought lower prices to farmers in November. If all this is true, the administration can be expected to attempt to pull some rabbits out of the hat and get that farmincome up.

The Business World

NEW YORK (AP) — Business is starting to put up hard cash to back its bet that more prosperous days are ahead. Corporation directors are ordering more money be spent on new plants and especially on new equipment. Executives of leading companies are announcing plans to raise outlays for expansion in

1962, some to new annual highs. Machine tool makers say a pickup in orders foreshadows a resumption of the upward trend in capital spending that was sidetracked when the recession led many companies to retrench. The construction industry says contracts, awarded or up for bidding, are taking the same trend. Such a pickup in business spending will give the economy a good boost. It will add materially to the new strength furnished by the spurt in consumer spending in the final weeks of 1961. Despite the increase in hard orders for capital outlays, the total for 1962 can only be estimated as yet. Many businessmen are still waiting to be sure that the upturn in the economy is a sure thing. And others say they may raise their present plans considerably if Congress passes the proposed tax incentives in the form of more liberal depreciation allowances. The Department of Commerce is taking an optimistic of cautious view. It says plant and equipment spending in the first three months of 1962 should be at an annual rate of $36.5 billion, compared with a preliminary guess of $34.5 billion for 1961. Some industrial economists are more optimistic. They think that confidence is building up so that business will spend at, or perhaps even better than, the record rate of $37 billion set in 1957. Confidence is a fragile thing. But it also can feed on itself. And that's what the optimists expect. Spokesmen for a number of individual industries have been predicting that companies in their fields will raise the ante next year. A much smaller number have said they will retrench further, having all the capacity they need to meet anticipated demand. The steel industry, for example, still has plenty of capacity. Yet this year it has spent around $1 billion for new equipment and for construction. The American Iron and Steel Institute says this brings total postwar capital outlay to about $15 billion. But in spite of over-all abundant capacity, several steel companies plan new expenditures, mainly to update obsolete equipment, produce new products, or effect production economies. The metalworking industry as a whole will spend more in the THIRD CUBA FRONT — Eloy Gutierrez Menoyo, who as a Fidel Castro officer helped down dictator Batista, tells reporters in Miami, Fla., that the anti-Castro guerrillas are operating on a third front in Cuba, in Las Villas Province, and that Raul Castro, Fidel's brother, has thrown some 25,000 men against them. The other two areas of guerrilla operations are in Pinar del Rio in the West and Oriente in the East.

Q. Will the vitamin A in fish liver oil help acne?
A.: No. High doses of non-oily vitamin A help prevent whiteheads and blackheads, but only vitamin A can magnify the acne problem.
Q. Does vitamin A prevent skin infection?
A.: No. In vitamin A lack, open cracks in the skin invite infection. But vitamin A can't defend healthy skin any more than a tattooed battleship.
Q. Will cortisone - containing vitamin A ointment cure patchy baldness (alopecia areata)? Does walnut juice help?
A.: Neither vitamin A nor cortisone help on the patch itself. Walnut juice might. Its dark stain can camouflage bald patches - providing you're not blonde!
Q. What is this vitamin B2 (riboflavin) deficiency I'm supposed to have? My doctor says I'll need daily vitamin B2 pills the rest of my life.
A.: Riboflavin deficiency may bring on greasy scales around nose and mouth, open sores in the corners of the mouth and bloodshot eyes around each pupil.
Other conditions cause these same troubles.
Are you sure your doctor said vitamin B2? Any vitamin deficiency usually involves several vitamins.
Meat, milk and even beer can help supply your daily riboflavin ration.
Q. Do vitamins affect blood pressure?
A.: Definitely. Vitamin deficiencies can lead to heart failure with low blood pressure. Bleeding in scurvy (vitamin C lack) may embolus pressure below shock level. Vitamin D poisoning clogs kid-

Nehru's Death Blow
By George Sokolsky
Nehru, the prattler on idealism, has done to the United Nations what Mussolini did to the League of Nations. He has given it a death blow from which it is not likely, that it can recover. When Soviet Russia hurls its 100th Veto at international morality, that is likely to be the end of the story.
For what? Nehru has accomplished the establishment of a Soviet-Afro-Asian technique to force the Western powers to subservience in the United Nations. The Afro-Asians are to perform outrageous acts and Soviet Russia is to use the Veto to protect them from repudiation. It is an alliance if the weak and backward nations against the West. It is a trick organized by the bazaar nations to destroy their benefactors.
Only Soviet Russia can benefit from this international juggling and therefore Russia will continue to support this gambit until either all the world is in political and economic turmoil or Soviet Russia has conquered Europe, Asia and Africa and is waiting only for its actions against the American continents.
The United Nations has not the possibility left to maintain the peace of the world. Its moral vigor is gone. No one can rise and speak for peace without hypocrisy. The American technique of intervention by financial assistance in a campaign against colonialism has utterly failed. Those who yesterday were freed by us from subservience to Western European powers have enslaved themselves to Soviet Russia. This they have done out of revenge for centuries of history, but the result is nonetheless slavery.
Nehru, who was Gandhi's apostle in a successful movement to free India from Great Britain, has shackled his country to the Slav and the Chinese and now must either beg them to let him live or beg us to save his country from the power that has seized it. The entire Eurasian continent will soon become a competitive field between Soviet Russia and Red China. What is the rest of the world to do while this fruitless struggle proceeds within the Soviet Universal State?
There are Americans who say that we need not worry; that neither the Russians nor the Chinese possess the power to make war on the West; that they will cut each other's throats. There are those who believe that famine, flood and bad government in those countries will solve our problems.
What evidence do they have that Soviet Russia will not make war on us? What evidence do they have that the Red Chinese will not explode the firecracker that will bring on Armageddon? They are willing to gamble on statistics rather than on psychiatry. They are willing to believe that no madman will let loose the forces of death and destruction as Genghis Khan did; as every Asiatic Conqueror did. They are hopeful that in an eventual quarrel between the United States, will come off the victor. But suppose not? Such gambles are too dangerous to contemplate. We must be physically strong and sure if purpose against the enemies we now face and we cannot continue to make mistakes or to hope that time will give us advantage. We dare not speculate on prospects of incidental advantage; we need to be able to strike the first blow, if need be. We must be ready for war.
To many Americans, this may sound horrible. They will say that one will not be taken to war, as usual advocates war. They will ignore history and permit their pre-minds to be covered with the moss of mystical hopefulness.
But the fact is a chilling one. Year by year, since 1939, we witness the growth of Soviet power and the subservience of nations, once our friends, to the Kremlin. We have missed opportunity so often and now the enemy sits 90 miles from our doorstep and is moving swiftly. We must face this monster wherever he is and bring him to a swift death or we shall perish in his blood. We dare not speculate; we dare not gamble that he will wear himself out because his way of life is wrong. In history, it has often been that incorrect ways of life have long prevailed and Nehru is an example of how wrong and dangerous a hypocritical prattler can be in this era of confusion.

Shining Light Bible Class Has Christmas Social Meet

The Shining Light Bible Class of the First EUB Church held a Christmas party Thursday evening in the Service Center.

The event began with group singing of Christmas carols led by Mrs. Isley Greeno. Devotions were given by Mrs. Bertha Gildersleeve who read the Christmas Story from the second chapter of St. Matthew and concluded with prayer.

A short business session was conducted by Mrs. Clara DeLong, vice president. It was decided to omit the January and February meetings as many members are unable to attend at those times.

The program, in charge of Mrs. Greeno, began with a piano solo "Star of the East" given by Mrs. James Pierce. Mrs. Ralph Long told a Christmas story, "The Little Shepherd Boy". A double duet, "Holy Night", was sung by Mrs. Megger Morris, Mrs. James Pierce, Mrs. Ralph Long and Mrs. Greeno. The concluding reading, "The Shepherds and the Angel", was given by Mrs. Pierce. The program ended with prayer given by Mrs. Myrtle Trimmer.

Gifts were then exchanged. The class teachers, Mrs. Long and Mrs. Gildersleeve, were presented gifts.

During the social hour a Christmas luncheon was served from a table beautifully decorated with Christmas symbols. A lighted Christmas tree enhanced the festive occasion. The Rev. O. F. Gibbs, guest, said grace. His son-in-law, Mr. Roy MacMurray, was also a guest.

High Styles for Holidays

By SUSAN BARDEN

In her latest collection, Elizabeth Arden has achieved an exciting combination of fashion and color news.

In a series of gowns, suits and costumes designed for her in Paris, Miss Arden offers for all occasions, and particularly the holidays, beautiful fashions whose youthful femininity and wearability are presented in a striking and unusually wide range of colors.

Daytime clothes, whether for strictly street wear or a slightly dressier mood, are made on easy body lines. Skirts are just below the knees. Shoulders are normal. And many of the dresses have diagonal interest.

With most dresses, there are co-ve-up jackets. They come both short and long, and many have side or double-breasted closings. Collars follow the stand-away trend and are small and round, some with notched detail.

The cocktail, dinner and evening styles are all made of beautiful imported fabrics.

Formal ballgowns are dramatic and often feature beads, brilliants and embroidery. After-five dresses are in rich brocades and velvets.

You don't need a very pretentious and expensive front door wreath to achieve a lovely holiday picture. A simple but artistic one is all that's necessary to convey a message of cheer, good will and warm welcome.

For instance, just a branch or two of pine or spruce can form the basis for a fragrant swag for the front door.

Spraying the swag with gold or silver, or giving it a snowdrift effect with suds "snow" will add to its attractiveness. This is recommended for a door painted in a dark hue.

Natural greenery with red ribbons and berries is all that is needed against a door painted white or a very light color.

And aren't those aerosol-type paint sprays marvelous! How much easier they have made the happy task of holiday decorating! Branches, ornaments, and even small trees can be colored easily and beautifully.

Vari-colored effects are simple enough to do.

First spray on a solid base coat. Then scatter on sprays of contrasting color.

Anything less than small tree can be hung up with a string and easily sprayed while it is slowly spinning.

For an effective place to show off holiday decorations, try using floor-to-ceiling draperies as a base. Chains of holly with artificial berries and tiny velvet bows wound through are most effective.

A large picture frame, too, can serve as a background for a bit of decoration. Outline it with a lightweight rope of real or artificial greenery prettily threaded with ribbon, the garland held at each corner by cellophane tape fastened beneath a knot of berries.

Ornament the front of bookcase or secretary shelves if there is room — often this space can be made by just pushing back the books.

Small corner tables make nice spots for a small, ornamental tree or a snifter glass filled with ornaments and wreathed at the base with greenery.

The main thing is not to overdo. A large room, naturally, can stand plenty of decorative effects. The small room, however, must be considered carefully and all decorations must be arranged so that a cluttered effect is avoided.

Convenience Foods Found In Old Egypt

The marvelous array of convenience foods you read so much about today are not all products of recent development.

One of the very earliest convenience foods was candy. It originated in ancient Egypt about 500 years before the birth of Christ. Naturally, the candy of 1961 is quite different from those early day sweetmeats. Today's candy consists of varied, highly nutritious ingredients. And candy making has become an exact science.

Candy bars rank as an ideal convenience food in industry. Many workers are being encouraged to take a candy break in mid-afternoon.

Reason for this is that candy is known to be a quick energy restorer and a contributor to alertness. It is a handy, between meal pick-up food. And best of all, perhaps, there is no preparation with commercial candy. You just unwrap it and begin nibbling.

FOR EVENING, cut velvet roses on pink satin. The skirt, shorter in front, has gathered fullness in back.

Ornament the front of bookcase or secretary shelves if there is room — often this space can be made by just pushing back the books.

Small corner tables make nice spots for a small, ornamental tree or a snifter glass filled with ornaments and wreathed at the base with greenery.

The main thing is not to overdo. A large room, naturally, can stand plenty of decorative effects. The small room, however, must be considered carefully and all decorations must be arranged so that a cluttered effect is avoided.

Buy Cherries Whole, Sliced

If you are buying both red and green maraschino cherries this season, decide ahead of time some of the immediate uses you plan to make of them. It will be a time-saver.

For decorating purposes, no doubt you will want the whole, plump cherries. But when baking cakes and other desserts, the sliced cherries which come in 9½ ounce jars eliminate that cutting or chopping chore.

Zesty New Filling For Stuffed Celery

Stuffed celery is a relish favorite in many homes for Sunday dinner. Generally cheese is used as the stuffing.

For the adventuresome, however, here is a new filling developed in test kitchens that blends sour cream. It's a tongue tingler! To make it, combine 1 cup deviled ham, 3 tablespoons dairy sour cream and 3 tablespoons chopped pimiento stuffed olives. Mix well. Fill chilled celery stalks. Serve as a relish tray for dinner or with a soup and sandwich lunch.

Young Peoples Class Meets in Scott Home

The Young Peoples Class of the Pilgrim Holiness Church held a meeting recently in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Scott.

The meeting was opened with a prayer given by Mrs. Thomas Beavers. The Pledge to the Flag was repeated in unison by the group.

Nancy Crawford read Psalms 54:1-7. Reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and approved.

A discussion period was conducted concerning the Christmas play and Get-Well Cards.

Class members elected Lenora Davis to serve as devotional leader and Larry Quince to act as news reporter.

Others present were: Nancy Crawford, Beverly Tootle, Ronnie Walsh, Barbara McKittrick, Phil Davis, Mrs. William Butterbaugh, Lois and Tommy Beavers, Joyce Crambley and Mr. and Mrs. Scott. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Social Security Rates To Go Up

Increase To Help Meet Cost of New Benefits

WASHINGTON (AP)—Social Security tax rates go up again Jan. 1, with the increased revenues helping meet the cost of benefit changes which became effective under amendments signed into law June 30.

The hike amounts to one-eighth of 1 per cent for employees and employers, and to two-tenths of 1 per cent for the self-employed.

This makes the new rate 3 3/4 per cent for employee and employer, or a total payroll tax of 6 3/4 per cent for each employee, and 4 7/8 per cent for self-employed workers.

The tax applies to the first $4,800 of annual earnings by employees. The maximum annual amount of payroll tax will be $300 instead of the present $288, or $150 each on employee and employer instead of $144.

The new maximum tax for self-employed will be $225.60 instead of $216 a year.

Changes effective this year included: giving retired men the option to collect reduced benefits at 62 instead of at 65; increasing aged dependent widows' benefits by about 10 per cent; increasing the minimum from $33 to $40 a month; providing more incentive for beneficiaries to work by reducing the amount that has to be withheld from their benefits because of earnings above certain levels.

CHS Selected As Site for Civil Exams

Circleville High School has been selected by the Ohio Department of State Personnel as one of 23 Ohio schools to serve as home sites for civil service testing for positions in departments and agencies of the state government.

The examinations will be administered locally by G. A. Hartman, superintendent of city schools, and Richard B. Fisher, CHS instructor.

The examiners, appointed by Director James T. Welsh of the Ohio Department of State Personnel, recently attended a Training Workshop conducted by the department to assure proper procedures will be followed in administering examinations.

By designating schools in the more out-lying areas of the state, the Personnel Department believes it will be better equipped to recruit and examine candidates who otherwise might not have the opportunity to take civil service examinations.

Also it is expected that the examination program will be integrated with vocational guidance and commercial training offered in the schools and that it will assist the department in recruiting clerk typists and clerk stenographers.

Examination schedules will be announced in advance by local examiners.

STATE CENTER, Iowa (AP)—Ann Hilleman moved her hand a few inches, fondled a stuffed toy, and smiled.

The smile, the excitement in her eyes and that tiny movement with her hand were the 17-year-old girl's only acknowledgements of Christmas at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hilleman.

She lay in bed, a few feet from the gaily decorated Christmas tree, while her parents, three sisters and a brother muted their celebration so the commotion wouldn't tax Ann's strength. Her weak attempts to join the fun renewed the Hilleman's faith that Ann would yet recover from injuries suffered in a tragic crash last May after a high school prom.

She had lain unconscious more than four months after the crash, in which a school chum was killed. Doctors say they won't know for at least a year whether damage to Ann's brain is permanent. She suffered brain injuries, a broken jaw and a fractured cheekbone in the crash.

U.S. Foreign Aid Hits 5.2 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. aid to foreign nations totaled $5.2 billion last fiscal year, but big repayments by other countries cut the net figure to $3.9 billion, smallest since World War II.

This report, issued by the Commerce Department Monday noted that the $5.2 billion was the largest amount of military and economic aid since the 1953 fiscal year when it totaled $6,352,000,000. Included in the figures were such items as Mutual Security, Food for Peace, Export-Import Bank, and other programs.

Secondary roads are the same east of a line marked by Jefferson, Canton, Mount Vernon, McArthur and west of a line marked by Bowling Green, Ashland, Urbana and in the vicinity of London and Circleville. The Ohio Turnpike is reported normal.

Dear Abby...

On Deaf Ears

DEAR ABBY: Your sympathetic letter to "Exhausted Daughter", whose mother was deaf, fell on deaf ears to me. Believe me, there are none so deaf as those who will not hear. I have heard all the excuses: "I'm too old to learn to use a hearing aid. They're too noisy and make me nervous. They give me a headache, etc." It's all baloney!

My aunt ruined her daughter's life because of deafness. The poor girl used to rush home from her job, do the marketing and run all the errands. She was literally chained to her hard-of-hearing mother. This girl was a beauty, but she never married because she had no social life. Tell those deaf people to TRY a hearing aid. And if that doesn't work, go to speech class and learn to lip read!

ONE WHO KNOWS

DEAR ABBY: Being totally deaf since childhood, I can only say "bless you" for the understanding you showed for the hard-of-hearing and deaf. I wonder how many people know that Helen Keller, who is both blind and deaf once said "I would rather have my sense of hearing than my sight!"

MAKING THE BEST OF IT

DEAR ABBY: In your column you said "Love is a two-handed game and it is impossible to be 'in love' alone." I have to disagree with you. According to you it is not possible to be in love with someone who doesn't love you. I know for sure that I was in love with someone who didn't even know I was alive. I'm no younger than Abby. I am old enough to be your mother. Please either retract your statement or explain it. I don't get it.

SEVENTY PLUS

DEAR SEVENTY: It is possible to "love" someone but in order to be "in love" — it must be mutual.

DEAR ABBY: I am married to a man who was married before. He keeps all of his ex-wife's letters, their marriage certificate and an album full of pictures of them together taken while they were still married. I feel that either he should send these things back to her or throw them out, but he refuses to. I am very hurt and jealous over this and it bothers me a lot. We have agreed to go along with your answer.

More Tax Stamp Agencies Closed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State Treasurer Joseph T. Ferguson said today he had closed 164 agencies selling sales tax stamps and plans to close 42 more this week. That will leave 327 agencies to close next week, Ferguson said. The agencies, one of Ferguson's chief sources of patronage, are being closed with the abolishment of sales tax stamps in Ohio at midnight Sunday.

Future Uncertain for Five Left Parentless in Crash

WARREN, Pa. (AP)—Mrs. Walter M. Campman isn't certain about the future of her five granddaughters orphaned and injured in a traffic crash that killed their parents the day before Christmas.

"I don't know yet," Mrs. Campman said Monday when asked where the youngsters would live after their release from a hospital. "It's too soon to tell."

The children—Judy, 15; Rita, 13; Mona, 10; Sandra, 11; and Janet, 3—are listed in fair condition at Warren General Hospital.

They were hurt in an auto-station wagon collision that killed their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Campman of Falconer, N.Y., on U.S. 6 about seven miles west of Warren.

Also killed in the crash were Lloyd Palmer, 45, and Kathleen Smith, 37, both of nearby Irvine. Each is survived by five children.

The elder Mr. and Mrs. Campman, who live near Irvine, were hosts Sunday at a dinner for their son, daughter-in-law, and five granddaughters.

Their son and his family then climbed into their station wagon for the 30-mile trip back to their home at Falconer.

They had gone about five miles when the crash occurred. State police, reconstructing the tragedy, said an auto driven by Mrs. Smith swung left to go around a car ahead and smashed head-on into the station wagon.

Palmer was riding with Mrs. Smith. Other passengers were Palmer's daughter, Mary, 15; William Sleem, 37, of Irvine, and his wife, Dorothy, 33. They also are hospitalized with injuries.

14 Million Take Part in Lunch Plan

Participation Shows
5 Per Cent Increase

By OVID A. MARTIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—More than 14 million school children—a record number—are participating this school year in the federally sponsored school lunch program.

The number of participants is up 5 per cent over last year.

The program provides a major outlet for a number of surplus foods acquired by the Agriculture Department under its farm price support programs.

The children pay an average of 27 cents a lunch, except for some 36 per cent who get their lunches free or at a lower price because they cannot afford to pay that much. Children's payments account for about 60 per cent of the cost of the lunch. Federal, state and local sources make up the difference.

The program is designed to help children get nutritionally balanced lunches and to create an ever-growing market for farm foods. Some 64,000 public and non-profit private schools are taking part.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A leading farm implement maker predicts that factory sales of tractors and farm implements will rise 5 per cent in 1962 over this year to the highest level in three years.

The forecast, said to reflect improving economic conditions in agriculture, is by the Ford Motor Co.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Tobacco Institute, Inc., trade organization for the tobacco industry, predicted today that tobacco growers and manufacturers will enjoy a record breaking income year in 1962.

"There appears to be little question," the institute said in a statement, "that in the next 12 months we shall see new records, topping those set in 1961, for income to tobacco growers, for output of manufacturers products, and for contributions to other segments of the national economy, including excise and other tax payments to all levels of government."

Ex-Con Is Held In Slaying of Pair

CARUTHERSVILLE, Mo.—(AP)—Sheriff Clyde Orton says James (Buddy) Williams, 34, a Negro ex-convict, has admitted the shotgun slaying of an Arkansas youth and the rape of the youth's girl friend.

Frank Craig, 19, of Blytheville, Ark., and Brenda Joyce Raines, 17, of Holland, Mo., were found dead on a country road near Holland Saturday. Miss Raines had been raped and beaten.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy is coming to the end of his first year in office. How well did he do at home and abroad?

At home, with Congress, he has been competent but not brilliant. He has had some conspicuous failures.

In foreign affairs 1961 has been a matter of beginnings—of foundation-laying for the next three years—rather than of successes. He will be a forceful president if he follows through on some of them.

His most consistent, obvious quality has been a sense of action, which he promised in the 1960 campaign. He's been busy, busy, busy.

That, more than anything else perhaps, is why the people give him unusually high grades in the public opinion polls.

Kennedy, a middle-roader, got that kind of program through Congress. He apparently was willing to settle for a half-loaf.

His philosophy seems to be: Avoid all-out fights on any one issue because it may antagonize enough people in Congress to block other issues.

So, instead of public appeals for pressure on Congress, a method which could be inflammatory, he worked through aides behind the scenes.

The predictable result was no fractured skulls and only a moderate program. On three major issues he backed away from tough opposition: Civil rights, medical care for the aged, federal aid to education. All three were left hanging.

His appearance of eagerness was boosted by trips to Europe and Latin America for talks with Premier Khrushchev, British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, French President Charles de Gaulle and the presidents of Colombia and Venezuela.

The trips showed no tangible good results. But no one could suggest they did any damage, either.

He dominated American foreign policy completely. But he goofed early and badly in backing a half-baked Cuban rebel invasion against Fidel Castro.

Whether or not the shock his self-confidence, he's been cautious in all directions since. But most of the year he encountered problems which would have tested the patience and judgement of any president.

Khrushchev hit him with a number of problems, two in particular: His demands in Berlin intended to weaken the Allies' grip on the city and, if possible, shake their unity; and the tricky way he suddenly resumed nuclear testing.

Through it all Kennedy kept his head, showing some toughness himself, until Khrushchev delayed a showdown. But Kennedy has to deal with him in 1962.

If Kennedy has a solution on Berlin, he hasn't revealed it. But he could hardly be expected to, yet. And he says he still hasn't made up his mind whether this country should resume nuclear testing in the atmosphere to keep up with the Russians.

At times his allies were almost as difficult as Khrushchev. West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, always worrying he might get sold down the river, was on Kennedy's back steadily, seeking reassurance. He got it.

DeGaulle was a prime pain in the neck to Kennedy who, with Adenauer and Macmillan was willing to discuss Berlin with the Russians. Not the lofty De Gaulle. He didn't help solve allied problems. He contributed to them.

Then Kennedy ran into opposition from both De Gaulle and Macmillan in backing the United Nations' action in the Congo. That's quieted down, but like so much else, is still unsettled.

Meanwhile, Kennedy laid the foundation for new relationships in four important directions:

1. In demanding that countries that want American help to stand off Communism put in badly needed social and economic reforms. Viet Nam, for instance, and Latin America. Whether he'll ever be tough enough to put it on a do-it-or-else basis remains to be seen.

2. In setting up a new economic aid program for Latin America plus a new understanding.

3. In adopting—at least in the case of the Dominican Republic—President Theodore Roosevelt's speak softly but carry a big stick policy, which could mean American intervention where and when Kennedy thinks necessary. How far he'll carry this is also one of the unknowns of 1961.

4. In trying to establish a new era of commerce with the allies. He has started a campaign, which must be fought out with Congress next year, to lower tariffs for the sake of better trade.

What Kennedy's first year in the presidency amounts to is a beginning, and hardly more than that. He still has the years to make good in it.

New Bus Result Of Stamp Gifts

NORTHVILLE, Mich. (AP)—Young patients at Northville State Mental Hospital have a new bus, a Christmas gift made possible by a mountain of trading stamps sent in from across the nation.

More than 4,000 individuals and organizations contributed a total of 2,301,600 trading stamps so that the youngsters would have the bus to attend school at nearby Hawthorn. Trips to the zoo and other points of interest in nearby Detroit also are planned. The Hawthorn-Northville chapter of the Michigan Association for Emotionally Disturbed Children included the bus on the patients' Christmas list last May. "They put a bus on the list almost as a joke," said Mrs. Charles E. Dell Jr., chairman of the chapter's bus committee. The bus plea was spread by word-of-mouth and later by newspaper articles.

New Bus Result Of Stamp Gifts

NORTHVILLE, Mich. (AP)—Young patients at Northville State Mental Hospital have a new bus, a Christmas gift made possible by a mountain of trading stamps sent in from across the nation.

More than 4,000 individuals and organizations contributed a total of 2,301,600 trading stamps so that the youngsters would have the bus to attend school at nearby Hawthorn. Trips to the zoo and other points of interest in nearby Detroit also are planned.

The Hawthorn-Northville chapter of the Michigan Association for Emotionally Disturbed Children included the bus on the patients' Christmas list last May.

"They put a bus on the list almost as a joke," said Mrs. Charles E. Dell Jr., chairman of the chapter's bus committee. The bus plea was spread by word-of-mouth and later by newspaper articles.

OSU, Purdue Take Classy Marks to LA

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Undeclared Ohio State and once beaten Purdue take a couple of classy records to the Los Angeles Classic in a week which finds Big Ten teams participating in holiday tournaments across the nation.

Action begins today with Wisconsin (4-2) facing Providence in the New York Festival and Iowa (4-2) meeting Penn State in the Quaker City Tournament.

Michigan (2-4) and Michigan State (4-1) will be engaged in the Far West Classic in Portland, and Minnesota (3-4) journeys to the sunny South to participate in Miami's Hurricane Classic.

Illinois (5-1), Northwestern (4-3) and Indiana (4-3) will take part in a Chicago Stadium tripleheader Saturday with Illinois meeting Colgate, Indiana facing Loyola and Northwestern going against Manhattan.

Big Ten teams go into the holiday festivities after piling up a 42-21 record against non-league foes. In six games last Saturday, the Big Ten split even.

Ohio State spanked Penn State, 92-49; Northwestern bounced Brown, 93-74, and Michigan State defeated Butler, 77-72. Illinois suffered its first loss in a 72-60 defeat to Cornell; Indiana fell before Iowa State, 83-70, and Minnesota lost to Marquette, 69-63.

The holiday schedule will be a warmup for the Big Ten race which begins Jan. 6. Opening night finds Michigan at Illinois, Michigan State at Indiana, Iowa at Wisconsin, Purdue at Minnesota and Ohio State at Northwestern.

a championship showdown about 9 p. m.

Amanda-Clearcreek carries a favored tie into the Pickerington holiday classic. Kermit McCafferty's Aces ripped off a spectacular second half to thump the Pickerington cagers 61-46 Dec. 15. The tournament runs Thursday and Friday nights.

CENTRALIA, under the guidance of first-year mentor Bob Sigler, tests its luck in a holiday venture at Paint Valley in Ross County. Matches are slated Thursday and Friday.

Circleville, after a resounding 78-52 victory over South Central Ohio League foe Greenfield last Thursday, gets another taste of circuit competition this Friday when the Tigers host Hillsboro's Indians. The tough-and-ready Redskins, with an offense geared to their bite-size Highland County home court, should provide a stern test for coach Jack Weikert's varsity five, now holding a 2-4 slate.

The Broncos of Ashville sign off the 1961 portion of their hoop campaign with a Friday bout at Washington C. H. The Court House crew went down to defeat, 59-52, at the hands of Circleville Dec. 8.

Logan Elm's Braves mark time in county league play while testing the abilities of Columbus Whitestone Friday in a game on the LE floor.

Local scholastic cage competition returns to fever pitch Jan. 5, as all fourteen area squads endeavor to better their records. Circleville has the featured role as the Tigers try to knock some of the bluster out of Wilmington's defending champion Hurricane.

Davis Cup Finals Nearing Climax

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP)—Mighty Australia, with Roy Emerson and Rod Laver playing brilliantly despite stamina-sapping 90 degree temperatures, moved to within one victory of its 10th Davis Cup Tennis Championship in 12 years today against Italy.

Emerson, the U.S. champion who usually concentrates on doubles, defeated Italian ace Nicola Pietrangeli 8-6, 6-4, 6-0 and Laver, the tip-ranked Aussie and 1961 Wimbledon titlist, routed Orlando Sirola 6-1, 6-4, 6-3 in opening singles matches of the challenge round at Kooyong Stadium.

A doubles triumph Wednesday would close out the championship for Capt. Harry Hopman's Aussies, who faced up to an "Italian draw" with the sure formula of success—unbeatable tennis.

The luck of the draw, pitting Pietrangeli against Emerson, was expected to help the underdog Italians. They counted on temperamental Nicola beating Emerson in the opening match and perhaps keying the 6-7 Sirola to a top performance against Laver.

A RAY OF HOPE FOR RAY—Injured in an auto accident late in the summer, Ray Pavy, Indiana U. cager, takes to the floor again—in a wheelchair—as the varsity and freshmen play a benefit for him. A crowd of 10,000 turned out at Bloomington on Ray's night.

The list of the major unbeaten, already trimmed to 10, will be reduced one more tonight when New York University and Dayton, each 6-0, clash in the Holiday Festival at New York.

Neither, however, holds the favorite role, with such powers as Cincinnati, defending NCAA champion and ranked second in the nation, and third-ranked Providence in the field.

Defending champion Wichita and tough Utah State, each 8-1, head the field in the All-College, while Duquesne and Villanova, two more unbeaten and surprise teams in the East, share the limelight in the Quaker City affair. Here are the first round pairings:

ECAC Holiday Festival at New York: Dartmouth (2-1) vs. LaSalle (3-1) and Cincinnati (6-1) vs. Dayton (6-0) and Providence (6-1) vs. Wisconsin (4-2) tonight. Semifinals are Thursday, finals Saturday.

Field Goal May Clinch Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—The field goal, used sparingly by both, could be the clincher in the Rose Bowl battle between Minnesota and UCLA, a couple of close-to-the-vest football practitioners.

As the New Year's Day game rivals resumed practice today after the Christmas holiday, the feeling grew that this could be the fourth Rose Bowl contest since 1950 to be settled by a field goal.

But both the bowl-repeating Gophers, who are 7½-point favorites and the sturdy Bruins booted only three successful field goals during the regular season.

However, each club scored a vital victory on a field goal.

Tailback Bobby Smith's 31-yard three-pointer was the difference for UCLA in a 10-7 decision over University of Southern California in the Nov. 25 finale which clinched the Big Five title and a Rose Bowl bid.

Minnesota's most bruising game of the season, a Nov. 18 tangle with Purdue, went to the Gophers 10-7 with tackle Tom Loecherer's field goal the margin of victory.

Tide Prepping For Arkansas

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—National champion Alabama resumes practice today for the Sugar Bowl clash against Southwest Conference champion Arkansas.

The Crimson Tide, undefeated and untied in 10 regular season games, sets up shop down the Gulf Coast at Biloxi, Miss., about 90 miles east of New Orleans.

Arkansas, which had an 8-2 regular season mark, flies in to its pre-game headquarters at Louisiana State University at Baton Rouge, 80 miles north of here Wednesday.

A capacity crowd of 81,585 is expected to see the two defensive titans meet next Monday. The Crimson Tide, ranked No. 1 in the final poll by The Associated Press, rules a 12½-point favorite over the Razorbacks.

Cincinnati has a working agreement with San Diego of the Pacific Coast League.

Giants Hoping Grades Will Be In Bonus Form

NEW YORK (AP)—It almost looked like a classroom in P. S. 85 today when the New York Giants handed in their homework to Coach Allie Sherman.

But instead of "pass" or "funky," each Giant may be graded in terms of $$$—5,000 of them to be exact, if he has learned his lessons well and the team beats the Green Bay Packers in Green Bay this Sunday for the National Football League's championship.

Sherman gave his squad a four-day Christmas holiday but had the players take home their play books, containing the basic plays and formations to be used in the Packers' game.

"If they don't have these basics down pat, then we're in trouble," Sherman said today.

He sent them onto snow-fringed Yankee Stadium to begin intensive outdoor work to put their book knowledge into operation. He planned to supplement the outdoor drills with skull sessions.

Sherman admitted that while the Giants have great respect for Green Bay's passing, it is the Packers' tremendous running, led by Jim Taylor, that poses the biggest threat.

The Packers won the regular season game 20-17 earlier this month, as Taylor bashed the Giants line for 186 yards.

Field Goal May Clinch Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—The field goal, used sparingly by both, could be the clincher in the Rose Bowl battle between Minnesota and UCLA, a couple of close-to-the-vest football practitioners.

As the New Year's Day game rivals resumed practice today after the Christmas holiday, the feeling grew that this could be the fourth Rose Bowl contest since 1950 to be settled by a field goal.

But both the bowl-repeating Gophers, who are 7½-point favorites and the sturdy Bruins booted only three successful field goals during the regular season.

However, each club scored a vital victory on a field goal.

Tailback Bobby Smith's 31-yard three-pointer was the difference for UCLA in a 10-7 decision over University of Southern California in the Nov. 25 finale which clinched the Big Five title and a Rose Bowl bid.

Minnesota's most bruising game of the season, a Nov. 18 tangle with Purdue, went to the Gophers 10-7 with tackle Tom Loecherer's field goal the margin of victory.

... WHAT I SEE ...—In the face of some criticism, Casey Stengel says, "I go by what I see with my own eyes." He was referring to infielder Charlie Neal (top), obtained by the New York Mets from the Los Angeles Dodgers for veteran outfielder Lee Walls (lower) and $100,000. Stengel has been trying to get Neal "on my side" for six years.

Tide Prepping For Arkansas

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—National champion Alabama resumes practice today for the Sugar Bowl clash against Southwest Conference champion Arkansas.

The Crimson Tide, undefeated and untied in 10 regular season games, sets up shop down the Gulf Coast at Biloxi, Miss., about 90 miles east of New Orleans.

Arkansas, which had an 8-2 regular season mark, flies in to its pre-game headquarters at Louisiana State University at Baton Rouge, 80 miles north of here Wednesday.

A capacity crowd of 81,585 is expected to see the two defensive titans meet next Monday. The Crimson Tide, ranked No. 1 in the final poll by The Associated Press, rules a 12½-point favorite over the Razorbacks.

Cincinnati has a working agreement with San Diego of the Pacific Coast League.

Open Offense Set in East, West Conflict

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — You can expect more of a wide open game from the West squad than from the East Saturday in the 37th Shrine East-West football game. Joe Kuharich of Notre Dame, coach of the East team, said his 24-man aggregation already has assimilated what he calls his "post-season offense."

It boils down, basically, to his quarterback calling the numbers of his power runners and telling them what direction they're to take.

The power runners are Bob Ferguson of Ohio State and Ernie Davis of Syracuse, and the passing quarterbacks, Roman Gabriel of North Carolina State and Ron Miller of Wisconsin.

For the West offense, Washington Coach Jim Owens is preparing a variety of combinations. John Hadl of Kansas and Mel Melin of Washington State both are getting plenty of work to quarterback.

The West figures to come up with a wide open aerial game, utilizing Mack Burton and Oscar Donahue of San Jose State, two speedy, sure-handed receivers.

'WHO, US?' seems to be the pith of argument of India's Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon over all that aggression talk following the Goa seizure. He is shown talking to Liberia's Nathan Barnes (left) at the U.N.

ROSE BOWL: U.C.L.A.-Minnesota at Pasadena, Calif.

IT'S THE 48TH ROSE BOWL game January 1 and both Minnesota (7-2) and U.C.L.A. (7-3) will be seeking their first victory in the Pasadena, Calif., classic. This is U.C.L.A.'s fifth appearance and Minnesota's second. The Gophers lost to Washington in the last one. Heading the Gopher cast is All-American quarterback Sandy Stephens, the leading passer, rusher and total offense star. Outstanding performer on the Bruin squad is Bob Smith, who scored 10 TDs.

Rebels Outshine North Unit Behind Strong Arm of Ply

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The South again has conquered the North in the Shrine's annual College All-Star series, and the latest hero of this football civil war is Baylor's strong-armed quarterback, Bobby Ply.

The shifty Texan pried a slow-moving Yankee offense with 14 successful passes to three talented receivers Monday night and the Rebels, favored by only a point, rolled to an easy 35-10 victory.

Glenn Glass of Tennessee was the catcher on a 46-yard touchdown aerial play, and Miami's two ends, Larry Wilson and All America Bill Miller, snagged two other Ply scoring throws for 10 and 7 yards.

Ply also sneaked a yard for a fourth touchdown in winning the press box vote as the most valuable player of this series which the South now leads, eight wins to six.

The game is played for the benefit of the Shrine's hospitals for crippled children, but the financial return was the lowest in the series history. Only 18,892 fans turned out in cold weather that dropped the temperatures into the 40s during the game.

In completing 14 of 26 passes, Ply overshadowed the North quarterback, Eddie Wilson of Arizona, who had an off night with 15 out of 39 throws.

For fine defensive work against the South's overwhelming attack, center Larry Onesti of Northwestern was picked as the outstanding player for the North.

Since he managed the Yankees in 1949, Casey Stengel has missed only two spring training periods at St. Petersburg, Fla. He missed 1951 when the Yankees trained in Arizona and last year he was out of baseball. But he will be back in St. Pete next spring managing the New York Mets.

HE'S THROUGH—Head coach at Nebraska for the last five years, Bill Jennings is out when his contract expires in mid-January. Jennings, 43, had 15 victories, 43 losses and one tie in his five years with the Cornhuskers.

Open Offense Set in East, West Conflict

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — You can expect more of a wide open game from the West squad than from the East Saturday in the 37th Shrine East-West football game. Joe Kuharich of Notre Dame, coach of the East team, said his 24-man aggregation already has assimilated what he calls his "post-season offense."

It boils down, basically, to his quarterback calling the numbers of his power runners and telling them what direction they're to take.

The power runners are Bob Ferguson of Ohio State and Ernie Davis of Syracuse, and the passing quarterbacks, Roman Gabriel of North Carolina State and Ron Miller of Wisconsin.

For the West offense, Washington Coach Jim Owens is preparing a variety of combinations. John Hadl of Kansas and Mel Melin of Washington State both are getting plenty of work to quarterback.

The West figures to come up with a wide open aerial game, utilizing Mack Burton and Oscar Donahue of San Jose State, two speedy, sure-handed receivers.

'WHO, US?' seems to be the pith of argument of India's Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon over all that aggression talk following the Goa seizure. He is shown talking to Liberia's Nathan Barnes (left) at the U.N.

ROSE BOWL: U. C. L. A. - Minnesota at Pasadena, Calif.

IT'S THE 48TH ROSE BOWL game January 1 and both Minnesota (7-2) and U.C.L.A. (7-3) will be seeking their first victory in the Pasadena, Calif., classic. This is U.C.L.A.'s fifth appearance and Minnesota's second. The Gophers lost to Washington in the last one. Heading the Gopher cast is All-American quarterback Sandy Stephens, the leading passer, rusher and total offense star. Outstanding performer on the Bruin squad is Bob Smith, who scored 10 TDs.

Rebels Outshine North Unit Behind Strong Arm of Ply

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The South again has conquered the North in the Shrine's annual College All-Star series, and the latest hero of this football civil war is Baylor's strong-armed quarterback, Bobby Ply.

The shifty Texan plied a slow-moving Yankee offense with 14 successful passes to three talented receivers Monday night and the Rebels, favored by only a point, rolled to an easy 35-10 victory.

Glenn Glass of Tennessee was the catcher on a 46-yard touchdown aerial play, and Miami's two ends, Larry Wilson and All America Bill Miller, snagged two other Ply scoring throws for 10 and 7 yards.

Ply also sneaked a yard for a fourth touchdown in winning the press box vote as the most valuable player of this series which the South now leads, eight wins to six.

The game is played for the benefit of the Shrine's hospitals for crippled children, but the financial return was the lowest in the series history. Only 18,892 fans turned out in cold weather that dropped the temperatures into the 40s during the game.

In completing 14 of 26 passes, Ply overshadowed the North quarterback, Eddie Wilson of Arizona, who had an off night with 15 out of 39 throws.

For fine defensive work against the South's overwhelming attack, center Larry Onesti of Northwestern was picked as the outstanding player for the North.

Since he managed the Yankees in 1949, Casey Stengel has missed only two spring training periods at St. Petersburg, Fla. He missed 1951 when the Yankees trained in Arizona and last year he was out of baseball. But he will be back in St. Pete next spring managing the New York Mets.

ORANGE BOWL: Louisiana State-Colorado at Miami

CLOSE ONE IN ORANGE BOWL—With identical 9-1 records, Louisiana State and Colorado tangle in the Orange Bowl game in Miami New Year's Day with the LSU Tigers a slight favorite. LSU is led by Earl Gros, fullback, and Jerry Stovall, halfback, who piled up 811 yards between them, and Roy Winston, All-American guard. The Buffaloes feature the passing of quarterback Gary Weidner, who completed 74 of 162 attempts for eight touchdowns and 1101 yards, and the receiving of Jerry Hillenbrand, who led the team in scoring with 49 points. All-American Joe Romig, guard, does a fine job as a linebacker. LSU's lone loss was to Rice. Utah beat Colorado. (Central Press)

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP TV-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Santa Claus who has dominated our home screens for such a long, long time, disappeared as if rubbed out by a magic eraser around mid-afternoon Monday.

On camera for the next few days comes his annual replacements: the diapered babe and the old man with the scythe. The musical theme will be "Auld Lang Syne," as almost every TV entertainment show puts on its almost mandatory New Year's celebration.

There was some memorable television viewing over the weekend, particularly of a religious nature, and enough inspiring music to satisfy the most critical. One smooth, relaxing hour was "Fred Waring's Unforgettables" on NBC Christmas Eve—tuneful, nostalgic and handsomely produced.

ABC's "Enchanted Nutcracker" had some nice moments, but as fantasy it was pretty heavy handed. Weaving a contemporary plot—a movie cowboy father and a ballerina mother—around a lonely child's Christmas dream just did not come off at all well.

ABC, with more holes to fill in its schedules than any other network because two 60-minute shows are going off, is still frantically looking over possible replacements for the Steve Allen Show—leaving after Wednesday night's program—and "The Roaring 20s."

"Straightaway," the half-hour action show about two sports car mechanics which has been having audience troubles in its early Friday evening spot on the network, will be moved to the 8 p.m. spot on Wednesdays—the second half of Allen's current time. The show, which has its strongest appeal to youthful audiences, ought to have a better chance on a school night.

Recommended tonight: "White Paper," NBC, 10-11—a documentary on Khrushchev and the buildup of the Berlin crisis.

Scotti Ward of Valparaiso, Ind., hit with five straight free throws in the last minute and a half last spring to help South Carolina beat North Carolina State in the first round of the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament.

Outfielder Leon Wagner paced the Los Angeles Angels in total bases in 1961 with 232.

JOB LINED UP—Former pitching star in the majors and relieved of his job coaching with the Minnesota Twins, Eddie Lopat lines up a shot on the pool table at his Hillsdale, N.J., home as he also has lined up a new job as coach of the Kansas City Athletics. Lopat will join his old Yankee teammate, Hank Bauer, with A's.

Packers Get Fine, But Win Cage Tilt

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Late by an hour, tired by a wearying day of travel, and fined a bundle of cash, the Chicago Packers posted one of their infrequent victories in the National Basketball Association Monday night.

For arriving late in New York for their opening game at the Madison Square Garden double-header, the league's newest entry got socked a $2,500 fine by NBA President Maurice Podoloff. The Packers then took the floor and whipped the Detroit Pistons 118-97.

In the second game, the New York Knickerbockers squeezed by the Philadelphia Warriors 136-135 in double overtime. The Boston Celtics tripped the Syracuse Nats 127-122 and the Los Angeles Lakers beat the Cincinnati Royals 141-127 in other NBA action Christmas night.

One flight cancellation and two other delays in Chicago caused the Packers' travel troubles. Podoloff decreed the team had failed to take sufficient precaution to arrive in time, and levied the stiff penalty.

The average age of the pro golfers who won PGA tournaments in 1961 was 32.1 years.

ORANGE BOWL: Louisiana State-Colorado at Miami

CLOSE ONE IN ORANGE BOWL—With identical 9-1 records, Louisiana State and Colorado tangled in the Orange Bowl game in Miami New Year's Day with the LSU Tigers a slight favorite. LSU is led by Earl Gros, fullback, and Jerry Stovall, halfback, who piled up 811 yards between them, and Roy Winston, All-American guard. The Buffaloes

feature the passing of quarterback Gary Weidner, who completed 74 of 162 attempts for eight touchdowns and 1101 yards, and the receiving of Jerry Hillenbrand, who led the team in scoring with 49 points. All-American Joe Romig, guard, does a fine job as a linebacker. LSU's lone loss was to Rice. Utah beat Colorado. (Central Press)

NEW YORK (AP)—Santa Claus who has dominated our home screens for such a long, long time, disappeared as if rubbed out by a magic eraser around mid-afternoon Monday.

On camera for the next few days comes his annual replacement: the diaphanous babe and the old man with the scythe. The musical theme will be "Auld Lang Syne," as almost every TV entertainment show puts on its almost mandatory New Year's celebration.

There was some memorable television viewing over the weekend, particularly of a religious nature, and enough inspiring music to satisfy the most critical. One smooth, relaxing hour was "Fred Waring's Unforgettables" on NBC Christmas Eve—tuneful, nostalgic and handsomely produced.

ABC's "Enchanted Nutcracker" had some nice moments, but as fantasy it was pretty heavy handed. Weaving a contemporary plot—a movie cowboy father and a ballerina mother—around a lonely child's Christmas dream just did not come off at all well.

ABC, with more holes to fill in its schedules than any other network because two 60-minute shows are going off, is still frantically looking over possible replacements for the Steve Allen Show—leaving after Wednesday night's program—and "The Roaring 20s."

"Straightaway," the half-hour action show about two sportscar mechanics which has been having audience troubles in its early Friday evening spot on the network, will be moved to the 8 p.m. spot on Wednesdays—the second half of Allen's current time. The show, which has its strongest appeal to youthful audiences, ought to have a better chance on a school night.

Recommended tonight: "White Paper," NBC, 10-11—a documentary on Khrushchev and the build-up of the Berlin crisis.

Scotti Ward of Valparaiso, Ind., hit with five straight free throws in the last minute and a half last spring to help South Carolina beat North Carolina State in the first round of the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament.

Outfielder Leon Wagner paced the Los Angeles Angels in total bases in 1961 with 232.

JOB LINED UP—Former pitching star in the majors and relieved of his job coaching with the Minnesota Twins, Eddie Lopat lines up a shot on the pool table at his Hillsdale, N.J., home as he also has lined up a new job as coach of the Kansas City Athletics. Lopat will join his old Yankee teammate, Hank Bauer, with A's.

Packers Get Fine, But Win Cage Tilt

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Late by an hour, tired by a wearying day of travel, and fined a bundle of cash, the Chicago Packers posted one of their infrequent victories in the National Basketball Association Monday night.

For arriving late in New York for their opening game at the Madison Square Garden double-header, the league's newest entry got socked a $2,500 fine by NBA President Maurice Podoloff. The Packers then took the floor and whipped the Detroit Pistons 118-97.

In the second game, the New York Knickerbockers squeezed by the Philadelphia Warriors 136-135 in double overtime. The Boston Celtics tripped the Syracuse Nats 127-122 and the Los Angeles Lakers beat the Cincinnati Royals 141-127 in other NBA action Christmas night.

One flight cancellation and two other delays in Chicago caused the Packers' travel troubles. Podoloff decreed the team had failed to take sufficient precaution to arrive in time, and levied the stiff penalty.

The average age of the pro golfers who won PGA tournaments in 1961 was 32.1 years.

Ohio Death Toll Passes Prediction

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Ohio's Christmas weekend traffic toll exceeded the prediction of safety experts.

At least 23 persons died in highway accidents over the state during the 34-day holiday period. The Ohio Department of Highway Safety had predicted 22 such deaths.

The prediction was exactly double the toll of 11 for last year's Christmas weekend over an identical 78 hours.

For a time, traffic deaths threatened to number even higher than the figure recorded.

Through Sunday midnight, during the first 54 hours of the holiday, highway fatalities mounted steadily during the initial 2½ hours.

Had that rate kept up, it would have meant nine more deaths Christmas Day, in addition to the 21 registered up to that time. But it turned out that only two traffic fatalities were reported in the final 24 hours.

The Associated Press tabulated fatalities from 6 p.m. Friday through midnight Monday.

For comparative purposes, the AP had tallied Ohio's accidental deaths over a similar but non-holiday period of Dec. 8-11. The highway toll then was 11.

A snowy weekend added to the normal hazards of the road. Many fatal accidents were blamed on cars skidding into crashes on slippery pavement.

One such accident—the worst reported traffic wise from the standpoint of lives lost—killed two Christmas-caroling boys and the father of one. Their car collided with a pickup truck which was sliding toward them sideways on a highway near Marietta.

In addition to the traffic slaughter, at least five persons died in fires and two in miscellaneous accidents.

One fire claimed three lives and another two.

Production Records Made by Holsteins

The Holstein-Friesian Association of America has announced the completion of outstanding official production records by two registered Holstein cows owned by the Orient State Institution, Orient.

The cows and their production records are: Orient Creamelle Hello Cra-cow produced 15,839 lbs. of milk and 620 lbs. of butterfat in 350 days on twice daily milking as a five-year-old.

Orient Posch Creator Lass produced 14,678 lbs of milk and 627 lbs. of butterfat in 365 days on twice daily milking as a six-year-old.

Ohio State University supervised the weighing and testing of the new Holstein records as part of the breed's official herd testing program.

Florida Has Chillest Christmas on Record

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The storm front that brought a white Christmas to a large area of the nation has spread numbing cold throughout the South, dropping temperatures below freezing as far south as Florida.

Farmers fired smudge pots Monday night in an attempt to ward off killing frost in agricultural sections of Florida, which had its coldest Christmas Day on record.

Forecaster Arnold Sugg said the icy Canadian cold front that caused blizzards in the north over the weekend had pushed through Florida and into the Caribbean Christmas Day. Low readings Monday included 42 at Miami, a record for Dec. 25.

Readings skidded into the 20s in much of northern Florida today. It was 27 at Jacksonville, 24 at Tallahassee, 38 in Tampa and 43 in Miami. Birmingham, Ala., reported 28 degrees.

In the Midwest, the area hardest hit by the snow storm, digging out still was going on. Rescue workers reached 12 persons Monday at a pumping station near Maryville, Mo., where they had been marooned several days by six-foot drifts.

Light snow was reported today from the western central Plains to the northeastern upper Great Lakes. Showers dampened the Pacific northwest, changing to snow in the mountains.

Skies were mostly cloudy across the northern part of the country, where temperatures were seasonably cold. Readings were mostly in the 20s but ranged as low as 4 degrees at Farmington, N.M., 5 at Glasgow, Mont., and 6 at Minot, N.D.

School Bookstore Becomes Popular In Cleveland Area

CLEVELAND (AP) — A paperback bookstore has become so popular with students at suburban Parma High School that many other Cleveland area schools have adopted the program this school year.

Parma school officials said at least 15 other schools now having similar setups or are planning them.

The walk-in bookstore at Parma was started a year ago as an experiment by some faculty members. Their aim was to get the school kids to read more good books and to buy them for their own home libraries.

"We're going great guns," said Miss Rita Silva, school librarian, who provided facilities for the setup. "There are books for everyone."

Last year the student-manned operation did a brisk business. A Cleveland paperback distributor provided a variety of books on consignment, and the kids bought 7,000 of them. The books cost $1 or less, most of them 50 cents.

"Bestsellers" included "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn," "Jane Eyre," and "The Oscillating Universe."

Agreement Announced

CLEVELAND (AP) — Diamond Alkali Co. of Cleveland has agreed to acquire all the outstanding shares of Harte & Co., Inc., of New York in an exchange of shares of a new issue of convertible preferred Diamond stock, the presidents of both firms announced today.

Terms of the agreement were not given.

Man Is Caught Shortly after Fatal Shooting

LIMA, Ohio (AP) — A suspect, arrested in Cincinnati Sunday less than 12 hours after a fatal shooting here, is back in jail at Lima.

The man is Cary Smith, 28, of Lima.

Police said he is being held without charge pending a report from the coroner as to the nature of the bullet wound which caused the death of Eddie Doe, 28.

Smith and his brother and sister-in-law were taken into custody in Cincinnati Sunday afternoon after a statewide alert from Lima police. Cincinnati police were on the watch after receiving a report from Kettering, Ohio, police that they had seen the Smith car but that it outdistanced them and appeared headed toward Cincinnati.

Cincinnati Patrolman Harold Williams spotted the automobile on Cincinnati's Central Parkway after hearing of the Kettering report. Roadblocks were set up and the Smiths were forced to curb in the midst of Christmas eve traffic. The Smiths offered no resistance.

Police here reported the Smiths went to the home of Ada Cole Sunday morning and that there was an argument with Doe. They said they were told Doe drew a gun and fired and, after dropping a gun, started to run when he saw Cary Smith doubled up. They said they were told, however, that Smith then raised up and opened fire.

They said their information was that Doe had threatened to kill one of the Smith brothers.

At Cincinnati, Lt. Cleveland told him Doe fired first but that the bullet struck his belt buckle and inflicted only a small cut. Two guns were found in the car. The shooting occurred about 9:45 a.m. and Smith was caught in Cincinnati at about 2:45 p.m.

Their marriage caused a national uproar and the Tennessee Legislature later made 16 the minimum age for marriage in the state.

The Johns have nine children. Eight still live on their 65-acre farm which provides a simple but ample living for the family. The oldest daughter, Evelyn, now 18, was married last year to John Henry Antrican. Charlie objected to the marriage at first, but later gave the couple his blessing. "We get along together as good or better than other couples I know," Charlie said. "I guess she'd do it again if she had it to do over. I've never asked her that. She hasn't had it too bad, or any worse than folks we know. "We don't go out much. I go to the store a couple of times a week and Eunice goes to the doctor now and then. That's about it. We don't dislike people; we just don't trust many of them." He said his marriage and family life is "no one's business but ours, but it's okay to let them know how it turned out."

In the Midwest, the area hardest hit by the snow storm, digging out still was going on. Rescue workers reached 12 persons Monday at a pumping station near Maryville, Mo., where they had been marooned several days by six-foot drifts.

Light snow was reported today from the western central Plains to the northeastern upper Great Lakes. Showers dampened the Pacific northwest, changing to snow in the mountains.

Skies were mostly cloudy across the northern part of the country, where temperatures were seasonably cold. Readings were mostly in the 20s but ranged as low as 4 degrees at Farmington, N.M., 5 at Glasgow, Mont., and 6 at Minot, N.D.

School Bookstore Becomes Popular In Cleveland Area

CLEVELAND (AP) — A paperback bookstore has become so popular with students at suburban Parma High School that many other Cleveland area schools have adopted the program this school year.

Parma school officials said at least 15 other schools now having similar setups or are planning them.

The walk-in bookstore at Parma was started a year ago as an experiment by some faculty members. Their aim was to get the school kids to read more good books and to buy them for their own home libraries.

"We're going great guns," said Miss Rita Silva, school librarian, who provided facilities for the setup. "There are books for everyone."

Last year the student-manned operation did a brisk business. A Cleveland paperback distributor provided a variety of books on consignment, and the kids bought 7,000 of them. The books cost $1 or less, most of them 50 cents.

"Bestsellers" included "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn," "Jane Eyre," and "The Oscillating Universe."

Man Is Caught Shortly after Fatal Shooting

LIMA, Ohio (AP) — A suspect, arrested in Cincinnati Sunday less than 12 hours after a fatal shooting here, is back in jail at Lima.

The man is Cary Smith, 28, of Lima.

Police said he is being held without charge pending a report from the coroner as to the nature of the bullet wound which caused the death of Eddie Doe, 28.

Smith and his brother and sister-in-law were taken into custody in Cincinnati Sunday afternoon after a statewide alert from Lima police. Cincinnati police were on the watch after receiving a report from Kettering, Ohio, police that they had seen the Smith car but that it outdistanced them and appeared headed toward Cincinnati.

Cincinnati Patrolman Harold Williams spotted the automobile on Cincinnati's Central Parkway after hearing of the Kettering report. Roadblocks were set up and the Smiths were forced to curb in the midst of Christmas eve traffic. The Smiths offered no resistance.

Police here reported the Smiths went to the home of Ada Cole Sunday morning and that there was an argument with Doe. They said they were told Doe drew a gun and fired and, after dropping a gun, started to run when he saw Cary Smith doubled up. They said they were told, however, that Smith then raised up and opened fire.

They said their information was that Doe had threatened to kill one of the Smith brothers.

At Cincinnati, Lt. Cleveland told him Doe fired first but that the bullet struck his belt buckle and inflicted only a small cut. Two guns were found in the car. The shooting occurred about 9:45 a.m. and Smith was caught in Cincinnati at about 2:45 p.m.

Happy New Year

"I've never been sorry or regretted it," Johns told the Knoxville Journal in a copyright interview, the first Johns had granted in nine years. "She has always been as good to me as could be. She's a good mother and a good housekeeper."

Their marriage caused a national uproar and the Tennessee Legislature later made 16 the minimum age for marriage in the state.

The Johns have nine children. Eight still live on their 65-acre farm which provides a simple but ample living for the family. The oldest daughter, Evelyn, now 18, was married last year to John Henry Antrican. Charlie objected to the marriage at first, but later gave the couple his blessing. "We get along together as good or better than other couples I know," Charlie said. "I guess she'd do it again if she had it to do over. I've never asked her that. She hasn't had it too bad, or any worse than folks we know. "We don't go out much. I go to the store a couple of times a week and Eunice goes to the doctor now and then. That's about it. We don't dislike people; we just don't trust many of them." He said his marriage and family life is "no one's business but ours, but it's okay to let them know how it turned out."
